Bison, Bears battle in finale

Rival coaches seek triumph to climax season with victory

By Art Carter

For the first time in many years, there is a strong similarity between Howard University and Morgan State University as the Bisons and Bears prepare to clash Saturday at Howard University Stadium in the Bison season's finale.

Strange as this may sound to veteran football observers on the East Coast, both teams are virtually winless for the 1984 season. Morgan, coming off a 38-7 loss of Towson State College in Maryland last Saturday, will breeze into the nation's capital for the 1 p.m. game with 0-10 record.

Howard, on the other hand, is 1-6 and trying to close the home season with a triumph after being trampled by Delaware, 45-7, and losing a heartbreaker to Maine University, 27-23.

Howard and Morgan have played two common opponents during the current season, South Carolina State and Virginia State. The Baltimore Bears lost to both, but the Bisons split with the two foes, edging Virginia State, 22-21, for its only victory of the 1984 season and bowing to South Carolina, 48-15.

A 20-yard field goal by Howard's Jon Nicolaisen with 17 seconds remaining provided the win over the Trojans, breaking an 11-game losing streak for Howard and giving the new coach, Willie Jeffries, his first and only triumph of the season so far.

The winless record of Morgan is strange, particularly when one recalls the famous football powerhouses the Bears fielded in the yesteryears.

For example, Morgan holds the third-longest unbeatable streak in collegiate football history—47-0-7—compiled by the famed Eddie Hurt in the 1950's.

Morgan also has fond memories of a more recent victorious history, remembering the 33-game win streak by Coach Earl Banks which enabled the Bears to capture the NCAA Division II championship in 1966.

Banks left the coaching ranks in 1973 after 13 years at the helm of the Hillen Road gridiron squad, moving up to director of athletics before he retired.

Since Banks' time, coaches at Morgan have played musical chairs with a 1979 record of 9-2 under Clarence Thomas. Morgan's current coach is James Phillips, who had a 2-8 record in his first season last year.

Wheelchair quint homecoming tonite

The Baltimore Ravens, desperate for funds to continue operation of their program, host a Back-to-Baltimore homecoming disco tonight (Friday).

The affair, which will benefit the handicap club's basketball and track and field activities, is scheduled from 10 p.m., to 2 a.m., at St. James and St. Johns Winner Circle Hall, 1225 E. Eager Street.

The Ravens Wheelchair basketball team has played a league schedule for more than 10 years.

Dickerson vs. Payton: youth must be served

ANAHEIM, Calif. (UPI) — After 10 years, Walter Payton may have finally relinquished the NFL's Golden Award to Eric Dickerson.

Dickerson, the second-year flash out of Southern Methodist, romped for 149 yards and two touchdowns Sunday, easily winning his personal battle with Payton and leading the Los Angeles Rams to a 29-13 victory over the Chicago Bears.

Payton, the NFL's all-time leading rusher with 12,797 yards, carried 13 times for only 60 yards, although he also caught seven passes for 78 yards to become the Bears' all-time leading receiver.

But Dickerson, who won the league rushing title last year as a rookie, padded his 1984 lead with his fine performance, boosting his season total to 1,309 yards to Payton's 1,172.

Pre-Thanksgiving wrestle card offers tripleheader

A wrestling tripleheader is expected to draw one of the year's largest crowds to the Civic Center tomorrow (Saturday) night.

One of the feature matches will pit The Junkyard Dog, a new local fan favorite, against rough and ready Roddy Piper.

Another will show Intercontinental heavyweight champion Greg Valentine in defense against his No. 1 contender Tito Santana.

And the third of the top events sends young David Sammartino against veteran Ken Patera. David is handled by his father, the once invincible Bruno Sammartino.

An action-packed supporting card includes time-limit matches of:

Barry Windham against Rene Goulet, Billy Jack opposing Rex Moondog, Salvatore Bellomo against Spot Moondog, Jay Strongbow against Big John Studd, Brett Hart taking on The Spoiler, and Bob Bradley against Paul Orndorff.

The first bout will begin at 8 p.m.

Gibbons star to Syracuse

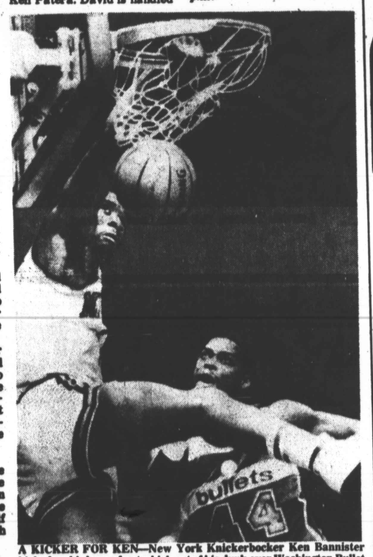
The vision of a Syracuse basketball team dominated by Baltimoreans in the near future, may have been the final push that committed one of the area's most outstanding high school forwards to the Orange this week.

Rodney Walker of Cardinal Gibbons, acknowledged Tuesday that he is ready to accept a 1985 scholarship offer extended by Syracuse cage coach Jim Boheime.

Evidence is that Walker was influenced to no small degree by the fact that two Dunbar youngsters—Mike Brown and Herman Harried—already have enrolled at Syracuse, and are now freshman candidates for the Orange varsity.

Walker and Brown are longtime friends, and the former believes he can obtain a better perspective of the situation and prepare himself for orientation by talking with Mike.

Walker, 6-9 and 210 pounds, averaged 12 points and nine rebounds for Gibbons last season.



A KICKER FOR KEN—New York Knickerbocker Ken Bannister kicked up his leg and got a kick out of his dunk over Washington Bullet Rick Mahorn (44). But Bannister's efforts were not enough as the Bullets led all the way in a 103-92 victory Tuesday at Madison Square Gardens.
