NIGHT SCENE SEEN.

The jazz scene in Baltimore is still abuzz over some of the upcoming events, and rightly so, for the Big B can hold up its head once again.

Tonight, for example, Moon August is at the Park Plaza; Brenda Alford with the Bob Fields Trio is at the Belvedere, Thirteenth Floor;

Lady Rebecca and Moment's Notice is at Gatsby's in the Billie Holliday Room; Gary Thomas is at the Jazz Closet; Dave Ross is at The Sportsmen's Lounge.

Milt Jackson and Ray Brown are at Blues Alley in D.C.; The Carl Grubbs Quartet are at a new jazz club in D.C., Woodies' Hilltop Pub on Georgia Ave., NW.

Saturday, Arnold Sterling and Julius Brockington will play at Mondawmin Mall, behind the Hallmark Cards sector at 2 and 4 p.m. as a part of the Anacostia Cultural Arts Foundation presentation.

Shirley Fields is at the Clark St. Garage; Allen Houser is at Bertha's in Fells Pt.

Sunday, the Left Bank Jazz Society presents the Arnold Sterling Quartet, with Arnold on alto sax; Marc Cohen, piano; Johnny Polite, drums, and Steve Novosel, bass.

The Central Pennsylvania Friends of Jazz present the New York Jazz Quartet from 5 to 9 p.m. at the Sheraton off Exit 18A near Harrisburg, Pa. Featured will be Sir Roland Hanna, piano; Frank Wess, reeds: George Mraz, bass, and Ben Riley, drums.

At the Sportsmen's Lounge, the Ray Gaskins Quartet will be in place at 8 p.m., with Ray on sax; Charles Etzetel, piano; Lorenda Featherstone, drums; Terri Battle, bass, and Delores King, vocals.

Next week is a date to watch. On Friday, November 30 at 8 p.m., the Smithsonian Resident Associate Program is sponsoring the second Thelonious Monk, Solo Piano Jazz Series.

Artists will be pianists Cecil Taylor and Reuben Brown. They will play solo piano featuring mainly original works by both artists

Reuben is familiar to Bal-
