

JOURNAL.

MONDAY, December 26th, 1842.

This being the day appointed by the Constitution and Form of Government for the meeting of the General Assembly of this State, the following members appeared:

For St. Mary's County—John M. S. Causin and William H. Thomas, Esquires.

For Kent County—Samuel M. Sutton and James H. Edes, Esquires.

For Anne Arundel County—James S. Owens, Tristram S. Dorsey, James Murray, Edward Hammond, and James Clarke, Esquires.

For Calvert County—James G. Allnutt and Loach L. Weems, Esquires.

For Charles County—William H. Brawner and John D. Freeman, Esquires.

For Baltimore County—Joseph Walker, Thomas C. Risteau, Robert S. Welsh, Beale Randall and Thomas S. Hall, Esquires.

For Talbot County—George W. Sherwood, Benjamin M. Bowdel and Morris O. Colston, Esquires.

For Somerset County—George Handy, John Fleming, Benjamin Langford and John B. Rider, Esquires.

For Dorchester County—Francis P. Phelps, William K. Traverse, William B. Lecompte and Nathaniel E. Green, Esquires.

For Cecil County—Nathan Lackland, John Simperts, Junior, Tillottson Janney and Thomas C. Crookshanks, Esquires.

For Prince George's County—Benedict I. Semmes, William H. Tuck and Samuel Hamilton, Esquires.

For Queen Anne's County—James R. Clements, Nathan Dunbracco and Lemuel Roberts, Esquires.

For Worcester County—James M. Holland, John T. Taylor and Charles N. Handy, Esquires.

For Frederick County—William Lynch, James J. McKeehan, Thomas Crampton and Daniel S. Biser, Esquires.

For Harford County—Francis Butler, Coleman Yellott, Thomas C. Hopkins and Luther M. Jarrett, Esquires.