Did you write to us

If you wrote to us, the AFRO's Mrs. Santa will mail coupons to all persons writing us by the deadline, December 14, 1984.

As late money is received this weekend, we will purchase coupons but they will be received AFTER CHRISTMAS.

Many people see the Maryland National Guard delivering baskets and immediately call Mrs. Santa and try to get a basket.

One reason you may not get a basket or coupons is that you did not write in time.

Or we may not have received your letter. The Main Post Office has advised that they received over 600 letters from people asking for food which were not received here at the AFRO because they did not have an address. They were addressed to Santa, Mrs. Claus and did not have the AFRO's address or AFRO anywhere on the envelope.

We are sorry but we cannot help people who did not write.

We can't accept any more clothes

The AFRO Mrs. Santa Store at 622 N. Eutaw St. has been open since Thanskgiving.

We want to thank all of you clubs and organizations for sending us good clean clothes and toys. As this is a Christmas program the store cannot accept any more clothes.

If you have baby clothes, coats, bicycles, skates we will accept them Friday and Saturday only.

After Wednesday, December we will be sending all left overs to Goodwill, various senior citizen centers and outreach centers throughout the city.

More than 500 of the AFRO Mrs. Santa families have been helped with warm clothes, coats and toys.

We will wish to thank Howard Marshall of McCormick and Co. for 500 brand new books and toys; the Chums, Big Sisters, Monumental Friends and the C and P Telephone Co.; Carl Smith's teams for collecting toys and mittens and other groups who brought in beautiful gift wrapped toys which went out immediately.

Today, Friday the Women's Detention Center is having a party for children of women inmates at City Jail. The Mrs. Santa program purchased oranges, nuts, candy canes, cookies, apples worth $79.62 plus donated new toys including the Cabbage Patch Dolls donated by Monumental Friends to delight the children.
