CHAPTER 209
(House Bill 378)

AN ACT to add new Section 63A to Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Public Education," subtitle "Chapter 5. County Board of Education," to follow immediately after Section 63 thereof and to permit the Board of Education of Washington County to permit private and parochial schools located within the county to connect their facilities to the closed circuit educational television system maintained by the County for the use and benefit of the public school system subject to certain provisions regarding costs and programming.

WHEREAS, there is presently maintained in Washington County a closed circuit educational television system for the use and benefit of the public school system only; and

WHEREAS, the State Law Department has advised the State Superintendent, Maryland State Department of Education, by letter dated March 23, 1963, that a provision enabling the private and parochial schools of Washington County to benefit from said educational television system, though constitutional, must be by act of the General Assembly of Maryland; now therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That new Section 63A be and it is hereby added to Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Public Education," subtitle "Chapter 5. County Board of Education," to follow immediately after Section 63 thereof, and to read as follows:

63A.

The Board of Education of Washington County may authorize and permit any private or parochial school located in Washington County, upon application and at no expense to the County or State,
