

(b) From and after June 1, 1968 no person shall begin the study of the law under the provisions of this section and Section 3 of this article unless and until, in addition to the requisites for the study of law as provided in Section 3 of this article, he or she submits proof satisfying to the State Board of Law Examiners that he or she has successfully completed three years of college work or its equivalent.

From the beginning of the fall semester in 1968 until the beginning of the fall semester in 1970, for the purposes of this Subsection (b), successful completion of eighty (80) semester hours of academic work in fields of study prescribed by the Court of Appeals and the Maryland State Department of Education taken in an educational institution approved to give such prelegal training by the Maryland State Department of Education shall be accepted as satisfactory compliance with the requirements of this subsection.

From and after the beginning of the fall semester in 1970, for the purposes of this Subsection (b), successful completion of ninety (90) semester hours of academic work in fields of study prescribed by the Court of Appeals and the Maryland State Department of Education taken in an educational institution approved to give such prelegal training by the Maryland State Department of Education shall be accepted as satisfactory compliance with the requirements of this subsection.

(c) The requirements for prelegal education as provided in the existing law shall continue until the beginning of the fall semester in 1968.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1965.

Approved April 8, 1965.

---

CHAPTER 269

(House Bill 236)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 177, 178, and 182 (d) (1) and (f) of Article 48A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume and 1964 Supplement), title "Insurance Code," subtitles respectively "11. Agents and Brokers" and "12. Public Adjusters and Advisers," to exempt from educational or experience requirements and examination for licensing to sell life and health insurance and insurance other than life and health insurance as agents, brokers or as an insurance adviser certain persons who are designated by and members of the Society of Chartered Property and Casualty underwriters and the American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 177, 178, and 182 (d) (1) and (f) of Article 48A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume and 1964 Supplement), title "Insurance Code," subtitles respectively "11. Agents and Brokers" and "12. Public Adjusters and Advisers,"