

LAWS OF MARYLAND 1965

MARYLAND, Sct.:

At a Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held in the City of Annapolis on the Twentieth Day of January, 1965, and Ending on the Thirtieth Day of March, 1965, J. Millard Tawes, being Governor of the State, the following Laws were enacted, to wit:

CHAPTER 1

(House Bill 250)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 49 of Article 26 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Supplement), title "Judges," subtitle "Pensions of Judges and Their Widows," amending the law concerning pensions paid to judges in order to provide that one who resigns because of incapacitating illness prior to reaching his sixtieth birthday is entitled to benefits under this section immediately upon his resignation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 49 of Article 26 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Supplement), title "Judges," subtitle "Pensions of Judges and Their Widows," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

49.

Every elected judge of the circuit court for any of the counties, of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, and of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, shall be paid, after the termination of active service, if he is then at least sixty years of age or when he becomes sixty years of age, a pension or salary calculated at the rate of seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750.00) per annum for each year, or any part thereof, of active service by appointment and election as a judge of the circuit court for any of the counties, of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, and of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, up to and including sixteen years of such active service, so that the maximum pension or salary for such service payable hereunder to any one person shall not exceed the sum of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00) per annum. In addition to the payment of a pension or salary of seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750.00) for each year of service, each judge of the Court of Appeals shall be allowed one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each year of service as a member of the Court of Appeals but, in no event, shall the total pension or salary exceed thirteen thousand six hundred dollars ($13,600.00).
