Find out.

Come to IBM Federal Systems Division's Open House, Saturday, Jan. 26th, 9:00 AM–3:00 PM. 18100 Frederick Pike Gaithersburg, MD facility.

A suggestion of the range of IBM Federal Systems Division challenges:

The Federal Systems Division's Complex Systems organization is responsible for the design and development of systems to support present and future needs of the U.S. Government in the areas of communications networking systems; computer workstations; air traffic control; space vehicle C² and other specialized applications.

Application Systems Engineers/ Systems Analysts

To develop applications for federal government and commercial customers. Should have at least 5 years experience in performance of systems operational requirement analysis and concepts; specifying systems and all of their hardware and software subsystems according to MIL standards; and overseeing systems design, development, integration, test, and deployment of advanced state-of-the-art information handling systems. Familiarity with LAN Technology and MIS systems preferred.

Systems Programmers

Credentials should include a minimum of 4 years experience with large and small systems, data base administration, computer networking, information systems and interface with mainframe programming.

Commercial DP Systems Engineers and Performance Analysts

Should have at least 3 years experience in system definition, performance modeling/simulation, configuration planning, installation and integration of large and intermediate computer hardware systems, central and DDBMS, distributed systems with intelligent workstations, and C² systems. Experience in planning and implementation of distributed local area networking systems is preferred.

Hardware configurations include IBM 360, 370, 9021, 3032, 3033, 3081, 3083, 3084, 4331, 4341, 4361, 4381, Series/1, System/36, 8705/3706/3725 communications controllers, 8350/75/80 DASD, and IBM Personal Computer.

Software environment includes CICS, CMS, DOS, HCF, MVS, MVS/XA, NCP, PL/I, RACF, Series 1, SSP TSO, VSAM, VTAM, as well as Ada™, EDX, UNIX™, VM, VSI, and Jovial.

™Ada is a trademark of the U.S. Government (Ada Joint Program Office)
™UNIX is a trademark of Bell Laboratories

All Federal Systems Division positions require U.S. citizenship. Extended Background Investigations may be required for some positions.

IBM offers competitive salaries and one of industry's most comprehensive benefits programs.

All qualified individuals with good credentials in the above areas are cordially invited on Saturday, January 26th, 9:00 AM-3:00 PM. Our Gaithersburg facility is located at the intersection of Montgomery Village Ave. (Rt. 124 East off I-270) and Frederick Pike (Rt. 355). If unable to attend, send your resume in confidence to: IBM Corporation, Employment Programs, Dept. AA-126, 18100 Frederick Pike, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20879.
