RECOVERING AT HOME

Send get well cards to Mrs. Zelma Glascoe who was released from the hospital after three weeks confinement. Mrs. Glascoe suffered a broken hip in a freak home accident. Her daughter Arlene Harrison is making life easier for her at 9508 Sweet Grass Ridge, Columbia, MD. 21046.

Entrepreneurial Leaders elected

The Central Maryland Chapter (5 counties surrounding Baltimore) of the American Association of Black Women Entrepreneurs has elected new leadership.

Working to effect new solutions to the obstacles to successful entrepreneurship, the Chapter has been in existence for one and a half years.

Newly elected officers are: Rachel McIntyre Lewis, president; Sherry Jackson, vice president; Vanessa Dixon-Mangerua, secretary and Sharon wdickerson treasurer.

The Association strives to promote coalitions among business women, serve as a national voice for these women, encourage business and professional development, encourage joint venturing and subcontracting by members, and conduct research on black women who own businesses.

Ms. Lewis and the other Chapter Presidents will be honored at the Annual Meeting of the Association held on March 23 in Richmond, VA.

Additionally the Chapter will select an individual for the outstanding membership award, indicating dedicated service to the Central Maryland Chapter. These and other accomplishments will become a permanent record in the Bethune Museum and Archives in Washington, DC.

Want to Call A Halt To Salt?

Studies show that sodium may contribute to high blood pressure and its related problems. Our Calling a Halt to Salt brochure is filled with information to help you cut back on salt and still enjoy what you eat. Here are some ideas:

- Season foods with lemon juice or onion and garlic powders. Use plenty of herbs and spices in place of salt. Try some of the delicious spice blends listed in our brochure.
- Check product labels to see if salt or sodium containing ingredients are listed.
- Try Giant brand no salt added products. We have a variety of canned vegetables, snack foods and breads.

For other suggestions, recipes and a listing of the sodium content of many foods, pick up our Calling a Halt to Salt brochure at the Consumer Information Center in any Giant Food store.
