EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (UPI) — Temple coach John Chaney was reprimanded Wednesday by the Atlantic 10 Conference for remarks he made about league officiating in the Owls' 61-57 loss to West Virginia Saturday.

In issuing the reprimand, Commissioner Charles Theokas said the league "does not and never will" condone remarks such as the ones Chaney leveled against referee Ron Foxcroft. Chaney called the overall officiating "inconsistent" and "pathetic".

Peete passes

Calvin Peete who won the second event of the 1985 PGA tour at Phoenix last month despite a third round problem with contact lenses, is passing up this weekend's Hawaiian Open at Honolulu.

The slender stroke artist from Bell Glade, Fla., will return to action next week in the Isuzu - Andy Williams Open at San Diego.

Galaxy of giants

NBA All-Star Game lineups defy odds

By Sam Lacy

Even sports fans who remain cool toward pro basketball telecasts are likely to warm up to Sunday's NBA All-Star Game at the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis.

The opposing lineups for this 35th annual hardwood showcase defy not only the imagination but the odds as well, no matter which way the various books foresee the outcome.

How do you figure in advance (before breaks and idiosyncracies have their influence) a game that produces a matchup between:

Moses Malone, Julius Erving, Larry Bird, Isiah Thomas and Michael Jordan for the East, and Kareem Abdul - Jabbar, Ralph Sampson, Adrian Dantley, Magic Johnson and George Gervin for the West?.

Among those on the East bench are Robert Parrish, Bernard King, Sidney Moncrief, Dennis Johnson, Terry Cummings, Michael Ray Richardson and Jeff Ruland.

A touch of irony can be noticed in this year's contest.

Abdul - Jabbar is the oldest of the entire group at 37 years, as he leads the West in its attempt to break a 5-game East streak.

Conversely, youth will prevail in the East backcourt, what with Thomas pairing with Jordan, the game's only rookie starter.

Aside from the fact that blacks will dominate the starting lineups — occupying nine of the ten positions — two others will hold down key slots in the extravaganza.

K. C. Jones of the Boston Celtics will coach the East Squad, and all - time NBA guard Oscar Robertson will serve as an honorary captain.

INTRODUCING to local fans Jonathan Sutton, a 7-year veteran at defensive back for the Baltimore Stars. The 6-1, 195 - pounder from Cincinnati was credited with 34 open - field tackles and 23 assists last year, plus four interceptions. The Stars open their USFL home season March 17 against Doug Flutie, Herschel Walker and the New Jersey Generals at College Park.

CIAA quints top ratings

Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association basketball teams are listed among the NCAA's leaders this week.

Virginia Union (20-0) is ranked No. 1 among Division II teams; Norfolk State 13th.

In women's play, Hampton (20-1) is rated No. 2 behind Chapman (Calif.) College, and Johnson C. Smith is listed in 18th place.

4 medals, 2 chores

Carl Lewis will perform an unusual "double" at the Vitalis - U.S. Olympic Invitational Saturday in the Meadowlands Arena.

The four - time Olympic gold medalist will sing the National Anthem shortly after competing in the 55 - meter dash. It will be the first public performance of the Star Spangled Banner for the Willingboro, N.J. native.

Morgan grapplers rally, beat Terps

The brother team of Jeff and Paul Green brought Morgan State from behind to defeat the University of Maryland in a wrestling dual meet Wednesday at Hill Field House.

Jeff, a senior, bested the Terps' Ron Pyle in the unlimited bout, and kid brother, Paul, a freshman, decisioned Ernie Pepiak in the 177 - pound bracket.

The 3 - bout rally for Morgan's 20 - 18 win was began with John Vorice outpointing Maryland's Mike McPartland at 190 pounds.

Failures shrink sports dollars

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — The Colts' move from Baltimore and the Orioles' failure to get into the playoffs caused a fourth - quarter decline in amusement tax revenues, State Comptroller Louis Goldstein says.

Goldstein said revenues from the state's admissions and amusement tax fell 8.3 percent during the fourth quarter of 1984, compared to the same period in 1983.

"The primary reason for this decline is a dramatic drop in revenue from admission to athletic events," he said Wednesday.

"The combination of no playoff or World Series games involving the Baltimore Orioles and professional football games at all . . . cut spending by more than two - thirds in Baltimore and more than one - half statewide."

According to Goldstein, $3.3 million was spent on admissions to athletic events in Baltimore from October - December, 1984, compared to $10.3 million for the same months in 1983. Total state spending on athletic events was $5.5 million in 1984's fourth quarter, compared to $12 million in the same period of 1983.

On an upbeat note, Goldstein reported that increased revenues were collected from admissions to movies, shows and exhibits, golf greens and night clubs.

Rec weightlifting meet slated Feb. 23

The first Maryland Recreation and Parks Association Olympic weightlifting championships will be held Saturday, Feb. 23, at the Medfield Heights Recreation Center, located at 1501 Woodheights Avenue.

The meet is based on pounds lifted with three attempts allowed in both the 'snatch' and the clean and jerk', with trophies awarded to the first three finishers in each weight class.

Entry blanks are available at the Division of Amateur Athletics, and should be returned with the $10 entry fee by midnight, Feb. 18.

Another Poet is heard from

From Boston this week came word that Reggie Williams and David Wingate of Georgetown and Tyrone Boggs of Wake Forest are not the only former Dunbar High stars cutting a figure in college basketball.

Reggie Lewis struck for 38 points Tuesday night and Northeastern ended a 13-game winning streak for Canisius with a 99-91 victory over the Golden Griffins in an ECAC North Atlantic Conference game.

Lewis, who fell a point short of Northeastern's all-time single-game scoring record, cleared the 1,000-point mark for his college career. The sophomore forward also grabbed 9 rebounds.

IN MEMORIAM

FRAZIER - In loving memory of my dear Mother, REBECCA FRAZIER, who passed February 10, 1982.
The memory of my mother,
Oh, it comes everywhere.
It shineth in the darkness,
and it floateth on the air.
It clings to me, It talks to me,
Through the livelong day.
It meets me in my daily task,
my household work or play.
The blessed, blessed memory,
That dear familiar tone
As her spirit watches still.
And cometh with her own.
Lovingly, INEZ and FAMILY

CARDS OF THANKS

BIRTHDAY TRIB

SIDNEY - In memory of our dear Mother, ORAMEL-DELANIA C. SIDNEY on her birthday, February 1, who passed away March 28, 1982.
Memories are treasures.
No one can steal.
Death is a heartache.
No one can heal.
Though others may forget you.
Now that you are gone.
We shall always remember.
No matter how long.
