

will suffice to pay the principal of such bonds or other obligations with interest to maturity thereon, which monies under the terms of said agreement are required to be used for the purpose of paying the principal of and the interest on such bonds or other obligations at their maturity. Such bonds and other obligations shall be authorized security for all public deposits. It is the purpose of this section to authorize any persons, political subdivisions and officers, public or private, to use any funds owned or controlled by them for the purchase of any such bonds or other obligations. Nothing contained in this section with regard to legal investments shall be construed as relieving any person of any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.

11. Separability.

If any provision of this subheading, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the subheading and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby. The powers conferred by this subheading shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1966.

Approved May 6, 1966.
