34th International lists 7 nations in Laurel race

By Sam Lacy

Six foreign countries will be represented in the 34th Washington, D.C. International, scheduled Nov. 16 at Laurel Race Course.

Additionally, said Laurel president Frank DeFrancis Tuesday, there may be two, possibly three, others committed to the event before week's end.

Two American entries — Creme Fraiche and Win — will be called upon to face the challenge of classy thoroughbreds from Italy, West Germany, France, Ireland, Great Britain and Australia.

DeFrancis attributed the strength of the field to two moves that made the race more attractive: (1) raising the purse from $250,000 to $400,000, and (2) choice of the Nov. 16 date which relieved the race from conflict with other high - stakes fall events.

A listing of the horses follows, accompanied by country of representation, owner, trainer, and major accomplishments.

ABARY: (Germany.) Owned by Walther J. Jacobs. Trained by Heinz Jentzsch. Won Group I Grosser Preis von Berlin twice, and Group II Grosser Preis der Badischen Wirtschaft twice.

CREME FRACHE: (United States.) Owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Moran. Trained by Woody Stephens. Won four Grade I races this year: Belmont Stakes, American Derby, Jerome Handicap, and Super Derby.

GALLA PLACIDIA: (France.) Owned by William Kazan. Trained by Andre Fabre. Won Group II Prix de Pomone and Group III Prix de Royaumont.

HELEN STREET: (Great Britain.) Owned by Lord Weinstock. Trained by Major William R. Hern. Won Group I Irish Oaks.

IADES: (Italy.) Owned by Marchese Della Rochetta Incise. Trained by Francois Boutin. Won Group III Prix du Lys, and second in Group II.

JUPITER ISLAND: (Great Britain.) Owned by Lord Tavistock. Trained by Clive Brittain. Won Group II Hardwicke Stakes, Group II Prix du Conseil de Paris, and Group III John Porter Stakes.

MOURJANE: (Ireland.) Owned by Fernwood Stable. Trained by Thomas Skiffington. Won Grade III Kelso Handicap, second in Group III Prix Chemin de Fer du Nord, and third in Grade I Breeders' Cup Turf.

STRAWBERRY ROAD II: (Australia.) Owned by Daniel Wilderstein. Trained by Patrick Biancone. Won Group I Grand Prix de St. Cloud and Group II Prix d'Harcourt, second in Grade I Breeders' Cup Turf.

TRIPTYCH: (France.) Owned by A. Clore. Trained by John Gosden. Won Group I Irish 2,000 Guiness, Group I Prix Marcel Boussac, and Group III 1,000 Guiness Trial.

WIN: (United States.) Owned by Sally Bailie, Paul Cornman, and Fred Ephraim. Trained by Sally Bailie. Won Grade I Man O' War Stakes and Grade II Bernard Baruch Handicap. Second in Grade I Turf Classic.

YASHGAN: (Great Britain.) Owned by Sherwood Chillingworth. Trained by John Sullivan. Won Grade I Oak Tree Invitational and Group II Prix Dollar.

Local Fair Lanes hosts pro Masters

Local duckpin bowlers will again have the opportunity to bowl with the top duckpin bowlers in the world as Fair Lanes hosts the Men's Professional Duckpin Association in the Men's Fair Lanes Masters. This tournament is being held Nov. 15-17 at Fair Lanes Middlesex, 1100 Eastern Boulevard.

In addition to hosting the pro bowlers, Fair Lanes will also host Pro Am tournaments for adult, youth and senior bowlers.

This year's Adult Pro Am winner will receive a spectacular 1st place prize of a plane trip for two with a week of deluxe hotel accommodations to a destination of their choice anywhere in the Continental United States.

The Pro Am tournaments allow amateur bowlers to bowl with the pros and compete for trophies and cash prizes.

Charm City Classic lures variety of strong quints

Basketball stars of the past and present will compete in the 8th annual Budweiser Charm City Basketball Classic next Saturday, (9th) at Douglass Senior High School.

Four successive games will be played at 1, 3, 5 and 7 p.m. Douglass is located at 2301 Gwynns Falls Parkway. The event benefits the Urban Services Project Survival athletic and educational programs.

Participants in the basketball competition are: The Baltimore Lightning, the Baltimore, Cleveland, Washington and Pittsburgh Old timers teams, the Sportsmen's Lounge, Radio Station WWIN, and Urban Services Agency teams.

Baltimore Lightning is the Continental League's newest entry.

The Oldtimers are members of the 16-team league consisting mostly of former professional and college basketball players.

Many of Project Survival's enrollees go on to college to play basketball, some, subsequently, have been recruited by professional teams. Since 1968, Project Survival has also been reinforcing the educational experience of boys and girls, 8-18, preparing them for successful academic and athletic careers.

After the games, the Charm City Classic Cabaret will be held at the Millard Tawes Center, Coppin State College, 2500 W. North Avenue.

Food and beverages will be served. Live jazz and disco music will entertain. The affair starts at 9:30 p.m. ends at 2 a.m.

Washouts, mismatches mar Wednesday boxing calendar

By Brion Tyson

About 1,000 spectators showed up Tuesday night at 5th Regiment Armory for Mike Jenson's Baltimore's Best Boxing. Although the card was originally slated for 7 bouts, only four actually took place. And of those four, only one went beyond two rounds; that between Baltimore's Marvin McDowell and Virginia Beach's Darryl Cherry.

In the other fights, which were all mismatches, Don Parker, a local welterweight, knocked out Rich Boone from Lanham, MD in 53 seconds of the second round in a laughable bout, and in the final bout, Lloyd "Honey Boy" Taylor scored a TKO victory over Rick Stevenson, also a fill-in, after landing nearly 20 unanswered blows to his opponent's head in the second round. Ring officials stopped the bout after 1:50.

Prior to the bout, Jenson notified the ring announcer that Taylor's scheduled opponent failed to show up and could not be reached at his home address, and therefore refunds were available for those who chose to leave the armory. About a dozen chose that option.

In the only worthwhile bout of the evening, Darryl Cherry fought valiantly for ten rounds only to lose a narrow decision to McDowell of the Solid Gold Gym.

With the victory, McDowell upped his record to 7 wins and 4 losses, while the fight marked Cherry's second defeat.

DEATH NOTICE

DORSEY - The Family of the late RUTH MASON DORSEY, gratefully acknowledges all of your kind deeds shown during its time of sorrow. The Sympathy cards and telegrams were far from being few, each having a special message that were so comforting too. Some of you prayed a prayer, right from the start, you must know how these prayers helped to ease our hearts; and others brought and sent some food that really changed our mood. Then there were some dropping in, just to sit and chat; our burdens couldn't have been lighter if they waved a magic mat. You may have travelled from afar just to be with us, oh how wonderful it was to see you, your presence was a plus. Then there were others who phoned to say just how much they cared, expressions deep within their hearts of the love they shared. All of your many kind deeds really played a part—to ease this family's burdens and comfort their aching hearts.
Husband, JAMES T. DORSEY and FAMILY

IN MEMORIAMS

GREENLEAF - In memory of my beloved husband, STEPHEN GREENLEAF, who departed this life October 31, 1980
I'm lonely for you since you went away.
Forty years of happiness in my heart and memory will stay.
Upright and kind in so many ways.
A wonderful husband, to the end of his days.
I thank God for you...Rest in peace.
Loving Wife,
BEATRICE GREENLEAF

In Memoriam

BOONE - In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, FREDERICK O. BOONE, SR. (PEETZ), who passed away November 11, 1982:
Memories of you we cherish so dear
And often shed a secret tear.
Only those who have loved and lost
With aching heart feel the bitter cost.
A pleasant smile for all you met
Your kind heart we can never forget.
LOVING WIFE
and CHILDREN

WILLIAMSON - In memory of our loved one, DR. SIMON WILLIAMSON, who passed away November 7, 1954.
We miss your smiles, and we miss your teaching and walk.
