CHAPTER 96

(House Bill 416)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 52 of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Replacement Volume and 1966 Supplement), title "Revenue and Taxes," subtitle "Collectors and Collections," to authorize the county manager to approve the surety for the collector of taxes for Montgomery County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 52 of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Replacement Volume and 1966 Supplement), title "Revenue and Taxes," subtitle "Collectors and Collections," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

As to county taxes, every collector before he acts as such, shall give bond to the county commissioners, county council, or county executive, as the case may be, in such penalty as may be prescribed by the county commissioners, county council, or county executive, as the case may be, but in no case less than the penalty fixed by existing local laws, with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the county commissioners, county council, or county executive, as the case may be, except in Montgomery County, the county manager; and the collector of city taxes in the City of Baltimore, before he acts as such shall give bond to the mayor and city council of Baltimore in such penalty as may be prescribed by the board of estimates of the City of Baltimore. The condition of such bonds shall be that if the above bound . . . shall well and faithfully execute his office and shall account for and pay to the county commissioners, county council, or county executive, as the case may be, or to the mayor and city council of Baltimore, if in said city, or their order, the several sums of money which he shall receive for the county or city, as the case may be, or be answerable for by law, at such times as the law shall direct, then the said obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in law. Neither the collector of city taxes in the City of Baltimore, nor his bond, shall be liable to the mayor and city council of Baltimore for money not actually received
