

accordingly. The provisions of this subsection are subject to the requirements of Section 18A of this Article [88A of this Code].

(c) [The County Welfare Board of Carroll County shall submit to the County Commissioners of said county within one month following the close of each fiscal year, a complete statistical report of the activities of said County Board during the said year. The report shall contain detailed data of the various programs, itemized expenses and disbursements in connection therewith, itemized administrative expenses and any other data deemed necessary by said County Commissioners.]

Each local welfare director has a general administrative responsibility to the State Department of Public Welfare. Specifically, by way of example and not in limitation, each local welfare director has the following basic responsibilities:

(a) long-range and short-range planning for the functions and objectives of the respective local welfare department;

(2) exercise of full administrative responsibility for the operations of the respective local welfare department;

(3) appointment of all personnel of the respective local welfare department in the county involved, from State Merit System lists under the provisions of Article 64A of this Code; provided that the appointment of the personnel of the Department of Public Welfare in Baltimore City shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 2 of this Article;

(4) improvement of administrative and social work practices and procedures;

(5) submission of periodic reports and evaluations as required by the State Department of Public Welfare; and

(6) submission of an annual report to the board of the respective local welfare department in the counties and to the Welfare Commission of the local welfare department in Baltimore City.

All local welfare directors shall have such other responsibilities as may from time to time be required of them by the State Department of Public Welfare or by other applicable laws, rules and regulations.

[(a) Each county welfare board shall consist of seven persons, one of whom shall be a county commissioner of the county in which such board is to function. Said county commissioner shall be an ex officio member of the board, and each year the board of county commissioners shall designate which of its members shall so serve. All members of the county boards shall serve without pay, except that they may receive reimbursement for their expenses incurred in attending meetings.

(b) The members of each county board, except the county commissioner serving thereon, shall be appointed for six-year terms, to expire on May 31st of the respective years of expiration, or until their successors are appointed. Upon the expiration of a six-year term, the appointee shall be ineligible for reappointment to a second term immediately succeeding the first. Any vacancy occurring for
