Mrs. Santa says: Thanks for sharing and caring!!

By Vanessa Johnson

God is truly wonderful! It is no secret what He can do and prayers are surely answered. Folks, today (Thursday) at presstime the Mrs. Santa Fund is $25,743.87. We didn't make our goal but we were able to provide baskets or food coupons from Food-A-Rama to all on Mrs. Santa's list and also give a little help to our friends at Murphy Homes, Mrs. Lillian Brown; Welfare Rights, Bob Cheeks; Druid Heights Mayor's, Mrs. Kitty Brodie and the burnt-out victims in Reservoir Hill via Carlos Hutchins.

We in the Mrs. Santa office would like to extend our sincere appreciation and heartfelt thanks to the many who volunteered and helped Mrs. Santa in any way at all, and hope that you all will have a happy, safe and prosperous New Year.

In the mail on Chritnstmas Eve was a letter from one of Mrs. Santa's biggest helpers, it read: As in past years, the Employees Community Fund of Genetal Electric in Columbia is pleased to be able to help with your Christmas campaign. All of the people at the AFRO are to be commended for their comittment and concern for those less fortunate.

May all of you have a happy, safe and healthy holiday. All of us at GE wish you much success with this worthwhile program. Ms. Patricia Shipley, Chairperson, Employees Community Fund Board. The folks at General Electric sent Mrs. Santa a check for $2,500. We are still ringing bells! Thanks you all for your continued support and concern.

Also on Christmas Eve we received another surprise. The Eastside Comwunity Committee, Inc. came to the office unexpectedly extending seasons greetings and along with their well wishes a check for $500.

Among the many activities the organization supports for season giving is the Adopt-A-Family Program where food, clothing and toys were provided to 22 families. They also gave $2,000 divided among A Place For Us, Santa Claus Anonymous, AFRO Mrs. Santa and the United Negro College Fund. Monies given resulted from proceeds of the 41st Annual Blue Ribbon Tea sponsored by the Womens City-Wide Committee for Delinquency Prevention, a sub-committee of Eastside.

The 42nd Annual Blue Ribbon Tea (always a must event) will occur Sunday, March 2, 1986 at the Dunbar/Community High School. The Womens City-Wide Committee for Deliquency Prevention also sponsored this event as in previous years. Chairperson is Ms. Barbara Faltz-Jackson; Co-Chairs are Ms. Deborah Courtney and Ms. Doris Terrell; Mrs. Anna Gilchrist, President.

The main purpose of the Eastside is the development and the support of programs that provide education, recreation, health and religious experiences to children, youth and senior citizens. Thank you for helping Mrs. Santa help others.

Merry Christmas from the Korean Business League as they donate 1000 Christmas baskets to the city's needy. 200 baskets were contributed to the NAACP and also the AFRO's Mrs. Santa. Pictured are left to right Mr. Joseph Oh, Emmett Burns, Director of the Regional NAACP, Jun B. Daik; President Korean Business League, Bon Chung; Vice president, and John Murphy III; President of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspaper.

The Red Cross Club of Eastern High School volunteers its time by helping those in need. They service nursing holes, mental institutions, and donate Christmas and Thanksgiving baskets to families during the holidays. They are pictured above with some toys they donated to the AFRO's Mrs. Santa. Shown are Ms. Tara Bell, vice-president; Ms. Regina Cole; Ms. Faye Williams, Ms. Karen Wilson, President; and Mrs. Ruby Lee, Advisor.

Ms. Paula Johnson and Councilman Nathaniel McFadden of the Berea Task Force presented a check for $100 to Mrs. Santa's helper, Ms. Florence Hope.

Talmadge Branch, President of the Young Democrats of Baltimore, presents a check to the Mrs. Santa fund in the amount of $100 on behalf of the organization. The group raised the money through a raffle they conducted on Dec. 20.

Mr. Ted Coates of the Real Estate Brokers of Baltimore, Inc. presents a check in the amount of $100 to Ms. Elyn Garrett, assistant to the AFRO's Mrs. Santa.

Mrs. Santa received a gift of $100 from the John A. Holmes Lodge #89, F & AM. Pictured are Past Master's Theodore B. Dilworth and James Bridgeforth.
