TWILAH SAYS. . .

By Twilah Scarborough

This is the year to try something new. This year 1986 be your own power, your own self, your very own woman. Be the model of your life. Endulge in your very own essence, self-woman.

Don't Agonize—Organize.

Go ahead revisit your life style and revisit again and again. This year let us not look back, don't be backward. Strive for straight ahead, look forward and keep striving for this. You should do more for you. You will see, you would have made a very important change for "self."

Get a new perspective on yourself. Start the new year off by saying this is my year and I'm going to make it my year too. Always be a winner to yourself. To have real self confidence, you must first know that you have a self that is worthy of your love. Remember if we are to move through our lives with self-confidence, then surely we have to believe we are worth the time it takes to know and care for ourselves. Let's face it, if you don't take the time to remind yourself each and everyday just how wonderful and capable you are, no one will accept who you are.

Remember as a child we play and act as a child, but upon growing up and being a delightful adult, well good wishes come too. We put away childish things, and though as an adult and act as an adult. We have to stop looking back. We learn how to let go of old angers and resentments. To hear the old anguish, and keep them all boiled up inside ourselves, tends to weigh us down and prevent us from being the positive person. Keeps preventing us from seeing the light. Today, we must move ahead and have a positive faith now.

No matter where ever you are, you are your life style, your life pattern. Your self in control and say you are your number 1 and be good to you, be good to your number 1. Learn to let go and start a fresh start anew.

In the self spirit. You know you can actually smile and hold a sort of laughter with yourself. Why, because you re in the race from the very beginning. You start and you come out on top with yourself. You, me and I right on time, right on target. No hit or miss or missed. In the ever ready self control, self image, self essence, in the best control/self person there's no problem. Everybody is perfect.

Whether you're black, white color of the rainbow, tall, short, full size, thin or somewhere in between you can be better than just okay. It can be perfect!!!

You see, perfection doesn't mean being like everyone else, it means allowing yourself to fill the best and look the best that you can be. You're always in the highlight of yourself, you just go all the way and this is called highlighting oneself. To yourself there should never be a problem with self. This is the year, to try something different. You can count on you. Meet your own match. It is your year 1986. It's more you, looking good, feeling good, keep yourself looking good and fresh. In 1986 we are our own boss.

We are going to gain confidence and discover new skill and energy. The attitude with which you face life each day depends on how much you value yourself and the way you see yourself forthcoming. Remember we are in charge. A person has to know not only where they are going as far as directions is concerned. But we have to stop and remember about all our awareness and positiveness. God is in control and through him we get strength, self images, self awareness and self control in order for us all to function to go on with our positiveness and self esteem and like the old saying onward soldier marching on.

We, you and I are blessed, better than blessed. Let's walk tall, keep our heads in the clouds. Strive to discover something wonderful. Let's get ourselves out of the closet, take ourselves off the back burners and discover the new you.

The first thing you'll find at the very beginning is the new you. Its time you find the new you nobody knows. You are in charge. You are the black warrior. You re in your golden chariot, knock the chips off your shoulder. You want to know what love is, you want to know, look around you and find you. Life is life. Team up with yourself.

Get to know yourself this year of 1986. You are the best novel, you are the nobel peace prize you are Baltimore's best. Each day you are a holiday, each day you bonus yourself. Make yourself your own quality investment. You are always a start in your corner. Guest, what!!! YOU—NON FICTION.

FUND RAISER

Soon, we will be getting together again like our centennial. Douglass High School, will be holding its fundraiser in April of 1986. The Douglass High School steering committee and its Douglass AFRO family will furnish more information in due time. So all you Douglass Ducks and united families we'll be seeing you soon.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

The key to successful leadership is understanding. A great leader needs to know its people!!! Ok!! Tomorrow.

Hamilton estate worth $165,000

WASHINGTON

Brig. Gen. West Alexander Hamilton, who died Dec. 22 at the age of 99, did not leave a large estate, bequeathing an estimated $165,000 among relatives, friends and organizations he supported.

Hamilton was buried last week in Arlington Cemetery with full military honors.

According to the last will and testament filed in D.C. Superior Court Dec. 31, Hamilton leaves $19,000 in actual assets and instructs his executor to sell his house and property at 4362 Argyle Terrace NW and split the proceeds from the sale with his heirs.

The house and property, said Jesse Dedmon, Hamilton's attorney and executor have been assessed at $146,000.

Listed as his heirs are his brother Percival Hamilton, who receives $5,000; Josephine Pettie, his sister who receives $5,000; Lucille Chaffin, his nurse who receives $2,000; Julia Owen, a goddaughter living in Prairie View, Texas, $2,000; St. Luke's Episcopal Church, $2,000; United Supreme Council AASR Prince Hall Affiliated, $2,000 and the Anthony Bowen, YMCA, $1,000.

Hamilton was a longtime member of St. Luke's and as well as serving on the Bowen Y board for 20 years.

$15,000 to be granted to young composers

The 34th annual BMI Awards to Student Composers competition will award $15,000 to young composers, deadline for entering the 1985-86 competition will be February 18.

BMI established the awards program in 1951 in cooperation with music educators and composers. The contest is designed to encourage young composers in the creation of concert music, and through cash prizes, to aid in continuing their musical education.

The prizes, which vary from $500 to $2,500, are awarded at the discretion of the final judging panel. To date, 304 students, ranging in age from 8 to 25 have received BMI awards.

The 1985-86 competition is open to students who are citizens or permanent residents of the Western Hemisphere including North, Central and South American and Caribbean Island nations, and who are enrolled in accredited secondary schools, colleges, or conservatories or are engaged in private study with recognized and established teachers anywhere in the world.

Contestants must be under 26 years of age on December 31, 1985. There are no limitations as to instrumentation, stylistic consideration or length of work submitted. Students may enter no more than one composition, which need not have been composed during the entry. Compositions, which are entered under pseudonyms, are considered by a preliminary panel of judges before going to a final panel.

In the 1984-85 competition, 13 winners ranging in age from 8 to 25 were presented awards at a reception at the St. Regis-Sheraton Hotel in New York City on May 16, 1985.

Broadcast Music, Inc. is the largest music licensing organization in the world, representing over 76,000 writers and publishers. More than 50 percent of the music played on American radio stations in the past year is licensed by BMI. Each year BMI sponsors a variety of workshops and seminars designed to encourage participation in all areas of music.

Official rules and entry blanks for the 1985-86 competition are available from the Director, BMI Awards to Student Composers, 320 West 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019.

Morgan establishes Black Music Archives

Recognizing the need to document and preserve one of the most significant components of America's artistic heritage, Morgan State University has established the Black Music Archives.

Initially, the major contents of the Archive will be comprised by materials collected by Dominique Rene DeLerma, Professor of Music at Morgan and world renowned musicologist, lecturer, author and researcher. Dr. DeLerma will be responsible for developing and expanding the collection of books, recordings, news articles, photographs and other memorabilia so that it will be useful to scholars.

According to a memorandum of understanding signed in November of 1985 MSU and Dr. DeLerma will facilitate development of the Black Music Archives:

...allocating funds for acquisition of materials for the BMA within the budget of Soper Library and within the normal process of distributing funds to academic departments and programs;

...providing assistance in developing proposals or cooperating with efforts to acquire other collections of black music memorabilia, including a joint project of publishing a catalog of holdings or bibliographies;

...providing professional personnel to administer the Archive as an integral part of Soper Library; and

...establishing jointly with Soper Library, policies and procedures for cataloging, organizing and making accessible these materials in a manner useful to researchers.

Commenting on the significance of the Black Music Archives, Dr. Earl S. Richardson, Morgan's President, asserts, "This effort is in keeping with the new thrust, the new momentum we are presently generating here at the University. Projects of this kind keep Morgan moving along in a positive direction. They can serve as models and challenges for other faculty members to take on similar projects."

Karen Robertson, a Morgan graduate and Director of Soper Library, says all signals are go for implementing the project. "We are prepared to accept manuscripts, recordings and other memorabilia that people might want to contribute to the Archives. This material will be housed in a special area of the library and will be made available for scholarly research. Actually, we already have some fascinating articles that relate to this project in the Beulah David Room including African musical instruments, a collection of materials about Duke Ellington, and a pair of Bill 'Bojangles' Robinson's tap dancing shoes."

Dr. DeLerma, the project coordinator, says that the Archives will include extensive documentation of the activities of Maryland artists as well as nationally known musicians. "Obviously, our collection will highlight materials about artists of national stature. But we also feel an obligation to compile extensive documentary materials about black performing artists from Maryland. So we are actively soliciting sheet music, letters, instruments and other historical items from such musicians."

Dr. DeLerma's contribution of his research materials represents a major beginning for Morgan's Black Music Archives. He has already compiled a 400 page "authority file" that lists the names, nicknames and biographies of thousands of musicians. Additionally, he has completed a substantial portion of a bibliography of articles and books about black musicians.

Pratt Happenings

All agencies of the Enoch Pratt Library will be closed on Wednesday, Jan. 15, in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday.

On Sunday, Jan. 12, the Enoch Pratt Free Library will celebrate the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr. with a special commemorative event scheduled at 2 p.m. in the Central Library's Wheeler Auditorium, 400 Cathedral St.

Titled "Drum Major for Peace," the program will offer music by Lorretta Gladden-Reddy and the New Psalmist Baptist Church Choir; a memorial address by the Rev. Wendell H. Phillips; and a dramatic interpretation of one of Dr. King's most famous speech by the Arena Players Youth Theatre.

A reception will follow the program.

Admission to the Library event is free, with seating on a first-come basis. For further details, call Pratt's Public Relations Office, 396-5494.

Exhibits

"Enoch Pratt's World: A Centennial Exhibition." Photographs, memorabilia, documents, and newspaper articles recreate the life and times of the founder of the Enoch Pratt Free Library, Baltimore's public library since 1886. Central Library, 400 Cathedral St., second-floor gallery during library hours through Dec., 1986.

Cosby kid in town

WMAR-TV2's Ken Matz, co-anchor of Channel 2 News at 5 & 11 p.m. with Sally Thorner, teams up with Malcolm-Jamal Warner who plays Theo Huxtable in "The Cosby Show," for the Annual March of Dimes Gourmet Gala at the Hyatt Regency on Saturday, Jan. 11.

Matz, along with partner Malcolm-Jamal Warner and a variety of celebrity chefs, will show-off their cooking expertise for a panel of some of the country's most distinguished culinary experts.

Guests attending the gourmet gala will have an opportunity to sample all of the celebrity recipes. Proceeds from the event benefit the March of Dimes. For ticket information, contact the March of Dimes at 752-7090.

Michael Ontkean (l) and Billy Dee Williams are the best of friends but that friendship will face a grim test when Ontkean pushes through a law making it legal for citizens to carry handguns in the town they call home in "The Right of the People," a contemporary drama airing on "The ABC Monday Night Movie," Jan. 13.

'Oprah' sweeps into 90 markets

Oprah Winfrey

The biggest hit going into the 1986 NATPE Conference is "The Oprah Winfrey Show," with King World confirming 90 markets already sold without any advertising. This represents more than 80 percent of the country and includes all 25 of the top 25 markets. Every station in the lineup is a network affiliate.

Oprah Winfrey's broadcasting career began at age 17 as news reporter for WVOL Radio in Nashville, Tenn., at 19 while still a sophomore at Tennessee State University, she began her television career as a reporter and news anchor for WTVF-TV in Nashville.

In 1976 she joined Channel 13's Eyewitness News Team in Baltimore where she anchored Eyewitness News: Morning Edition, co-hosted "People Are Talking" and co-anchored Eyewitness Noon News.

Ms. Winfrey achieved national fame when her local Chicago show took first place away from Phil Donahue. And recently, she has received rave critical acclaim for her debut in the Steven Spielberg film "The Color Purple," where she portrays the robust 'Sofia', with reports of an Oscar nomination.

"In my many years of distribution, I've never seen such a rapid and strong response," said David F. Sifford, President of King World Enterprises, "especially before any trade ads were taken and before the series was a firm go."

Among the new markets confirmed are the ABC-owned stations WABC-TV, New York; KABC-TV, Los Angeles; and KGO-TV, San Francisco, as well as WLS-TV in Chicago, where the series will originate in September.

The newer sales include WPVI-TV, Philadelphia; WXYZ-TV Detroit; WDVM-TV, Washington, D.C.; WFAA-TV, Dallas-Fort Worth; and WEWS-TV Cleveland.

In addition to the large markets, there are a number of middle-sized markets such as KMST-TV, Monterey-Salinas; WJKA-TV Wilmington; WEAU-TV, LaCrosse-Eau Claire; and WBTW-TV, Florence, S.C. Some of the smallest markets have also bought the program.

King World plans to host a special press conference for Ms. Winfrey during NATPE on Saturday, Jan. 18 in New Orleans, where she will unveil the format of her national series.

Master musician Quincy Jones pays tribute to Warner Bros. legacy of animated stars, on "Bugs Bunny/Looney Tunes All-Star 50th Anniversary," airing Jan. 14 on the CBS Network.
