

(c) Temporary licenses may be issued by the Secretary in accordance with such rules or regulations as the Board may prescribe, to any applicant for a license who files an application in proper form and pays the annual license fee therefor. A temporary license shall automatically expire at the time the Board either refuses to issue or grants the license, and shall be subject to termination by the Secretary at any time prior to action by the Board.

(a) The Board shall revoke or suspend the license of any well driller who is found upon hearing by the Board to be guilty of

(1) Fraud or deceit in obtaining license;

(2) Any gross negligence, incompetence or misconduct in the business of well drilling. The Board may suspend or revoke the license of a well driller upon its finding that there has been a violation of the provisions of this subtitle or of any of the rules and regulations promulgated under this subtitle by the Board; or of any other rules or regulations of another agency which is adopted by the Board as applicable to the business of well drilling.

(b) Any person may prefer charges against any licensee of fraud, deceit, gross negligence, incompetency, misconduct or violation of law or regulation. Such charges shall be in writing and shall be filed with the Secretary of the Board.

All charges shall be heard by the Board within three months after the date on which they shall have been preferred, and the Board shall have the power and the authority to subpoena witnesses, to take the testimony of witnesses under oath, to require the production by witnesses of books, papers, public records and other documentary evidence, and to examine them as it may require in relation to the charges before the Board.

A time and place for said hearing shall be fixed by the Board, and a copy of the charges, together with a notice of the time and place of hearing, shall be personally served or mailed to the last known address of such licensee at least thirty days before the date fixed for the hearing. At any hearing the accused licensee shall have the right to appear in person and by counsel to cross-examine witnesses and to produce evidence and witnesses in his own defense.

(c) The Board may re-issue a license to any person whose license has been suspended or revoked, providing five or more members vote in favor of such re-issuance.

(d) Any party aggrieved by a final decision of the Board is entitled to judicial review thereof as provided by the Administrative Procedure Act, Section 255, of Article 41 of this Code.

81.

The Board may enter into agreements for reciprocity with the licensing agencies of other states and issue without fee or examination, if such reciprocal arrangements can be made, ~~issue~~ a license as a well driller qualified to practice in such other jurisdictions. When arrangements for reciprocity cannot be made, the nonresident well driller shall be required to meet all the requirements of the subtitle in obtaining a license. If another state or subdivision thereof requires
