an officer of registration, shall receive and hold the key thereof, if used, and the package of unused ballots sealed by the judges. One of the judges shall then take into his possession the registry. Each of the judges shall also take into his possession one of the statement of the vote cast, sealed up in its envelope as aforesaid, and also one of the tally sheets, sealed up in an envelope as aforesaid. The meeting of the judges shall then be dissolved. The judge having possession of the ballot boxes shall immediately deliver the same with the contents to the board with the seal unbroken and shall take a receipt therefor. At the same time the judges having possession of the key, the package of unused ballots and the registers or the binder containing the registration cards, and one copy of the statement of votes cast and tally sheet shall deliver them to the board and take a receipt therefor. The judges having possession of the other statements and tallies shall deliver them before 12 o'clock noon on the day following the election to the respective officers to whom they are addressed, as aforesaid; and when so delivered, each of the said judges shall take a receipt therefor. No judge shall receive pay for his services unless he produces the receipt herein provided for. The members of each board shall be present at their respective offices on the days named for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section.

(a)   Each political party or other body of voters having a candidate or candidates shall have the right to designate [and keep] a registered voter as a challenger and watcher at each place of registration and election. Said persons shall be assigned to such position near the judges, inside the registration or polling room, as to enable them to see each person as he offers to register or vote. They shall be protected in the discharge of their duty by the judges and the police.

(f)   The form for the certificate of a challenger and watcher shall be supplied by the party, candidate or other organization and shall be in substantially the following form:
