OBITUARIES

Mrs. Elia B. Warren

Funeral services for Mrs. Elia B. Warren were held at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 12 at the Nutter and Sons Funeral Home, 2501 Gwynns Falls Parkway.

Mrs. Warren, mother of Mrs. Vashti Warren Joyner and mother-in-law of Grogan Joyner, died early Saturday morning, Feb. 8 after a long illness. Mrs. Warren, who was stricken in July, has been in and out of hospitals and nursing homes since then. At the time of her death, she was residing at the Keswick Nursing Home on Forty-first Street. She was 86.

Mrs. Warren was born in Severn, NC, on June 15, 1899, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Branch. In 1919, she married the late Henry Warren from which union was born one daughter, Vashti.

Mrs. Warren came to Baltimore in 1930 and obtained work with private families. She was an outstanding culinary artisan whose specialty was baked goods. In January, 1981, Mrs. Warren retired from the employ of Mrs. Edward K. Dunn.

During her retirement, Mrs. Warren spent endless hours cultivating her flower garden which was a neighborhood showplace.

Beginning with Thanksgiving, the home in the 2300 block of Poplar Grove Street rivaled McCormick's Spice Factory as Mrs. Warren prepared fruit cakes, pound cakes, spice cakes and cookies for Christmas.

Immediately after Christmas, Mrs. Warren packed her bags in preparation for her two or three month-vacation with her grandchildren, Sharon, in the San Francisco Bay Area of California.

Mrs. Warren is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Vashti Joyner of Baltimore; a granddaughter, Sharon Joyner of Menlo Park, CA; a grandson, Warren Joyner of Dallas, a niece, Mrs. Lois Beverly and her faithful and devoted son-in-law, Grogan Joyner of Baltimore, and other relatives and friends.

The family suggests that memorial contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.

William Thompson, AFRO pressman

On Feb. 10, funeral services were held for William Thompson, at Sharp Street Methodist Church. He died on Feb. 6.

He was born on August 15, 1902 in Baltimore and was a graduate of Frederick Douglass High School.

In May, 1931, Mr. Thompson came to the AFRO, where he was employed as a pressman, and where he remained for 47 years. During this time at the AFRO, he had received numerous service awards.

Mr. Thompson was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Henry (Annie) Thompson.

He is survived by his two nieces, Mrs. Melvinnia T. Fields and Miss Teresa M. Thompson; two great nieces, other relatives and friends.

He is buried at Mount Auburn Cemetery.

PARTYLINE

COUPLE MARKS 50TH YEAR OF MARRIAGE

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Raymond (Skeets) Holland celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, along with 200 relatives and friends at a reception and dinner party at Martin's West.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland greeted old friends from Philadelphia, PA; Warrenton, NC; Washington, DC and relatives from Charlestown, WV; Pawtucket, RI and Bel Air, MD.

The honorees and their children Raymond Holland, Carolyn Cole, Teresa Holland and Jimmy Holland began the afternoon reminiscing about their days of enjoyment in the Pimlico community when friends arrived whom they had not seen in 10 years.

Following the cocktail hour all the guests were seated for a most enjoyable program with Raymond Holland, Jr. as emcee for the occasion.

The headtable was arranged in two tiers with the grandchildren seated at the lower tier-Gary Holland, Chris Holland, Sherrie Holland, Troy Holland, Todd Cole and Kelly Cole.

The top tier consisted of the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Holland, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cole and Miss Teresa Holland.

The Rev. Leander Brown gave the invocation, followed by a beautiful solo by Keith Pennick. Catherine Holland presented the 'Golden Years of the Honorees.' A special presentation from the governor and Mayor Schaefer were presented by Dr. Denise Holland and Carolyn Cole extended special acknowledgements. Gary Holland read a special message from all of the grandchildren and Ralph Cole gave the Anniversary toast.

The guests enjoyed a delicious meal of tossed salad, stuffed boned breast of white hen, potato Martin, string beans and flaming Cherries Jubliee in a room decorated in gold and which had beautiful flowing fountains.

Following dinner the honorees and their guests danced to the tunes of the band Evening Wind and enjoyed an open bar all afternoon.

The radiant, celebrating couple had the fun of cutting a five-tiered anniversary cake, much to the delight of all attending.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Edith Brown, Dr. Nannette Henderson, Dr. Denise Holland, Mrs. Charlene McCargo, Mrs. Wendy Robinson and Mrs. Virginia Watkins.

TWINS TOAST TWENTY-FIFTH TANDEM BIRTHDAY

Toasting together their twenty-fifthe tandem birthday, the Maxwell twins, Carla Maxwell Ray and Carmen T. Maxwell, celebrated mightly at the home of Carmen Maxwell in Northwest Baltimore, Saturday, Jan. 25.

Attending the festive event were 67 friends and family members hailing from Massachusetts, New York, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, PA; Virginia, Delaware and Washington, D.C.

Guests included Troy and Beulah Maxwell (the twin's parents), Angela and Johnny Brown, sister and brother-in-law; Jeffrey Brown, a nephew, plus a host of aunts, uncles and cousins.

The ambience of the evening was complemented by a red and white color scheme for the residence. Setting off the artistic background, both twins wore elegant red silk dress accessorized with flowing strands of pearls, black leather pumps, red bow ties and grey mist stockings.

Carla Maxwell Ray is married to Robert Ray and lives in Claymont, DE with their daughter, Marvgula. Carla is a 1978 graduate of Western High School and earned a degree form Lincoln University in Pennsylvania in 1981. She is employed by Aetna Insurance as a Senior Claims Representative.

Socially and intellectually active, Carla is a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Bethel AME Church of Delaware, and is pursing an MBA Degree from the University of Delaware on a full scholarship.

Carmen Maxwell's educational history mirrors that of her twin sister, their both having completed Western High School and Lincoln University at the same time. Carmen, who resides in Baltimore, is employed by Computer Task Group as an Associate Systems Engineer. She is presently pursuing a Master's Degree with a concentration in Computer Information Systems. She is also a member of several organizations and AME Zion Church.

During the swinging soiree in honor of their natal day, the honorees and their guests feasted on a sumptuous menu of chicken salad, sea food salad, deviled eggs, assorted cheeses, potent potables and ultra rich desserts.

Describing their feeling toward each other, the twins offer the following statement: "Throughout the years you have shown me affection and havealways been there when I needed someone. Together we have shared secrets, laughter, and the joys of growing up; And in that time, I hope that I have returned to you some of the love you have unselfishly given to me. I am forever grateful to have a sister like you."

THE PIERIANS, INC. LISTEN TO THE BEAT

For their mid-season program, the "Jazz Explosion," The Pierians, Inc., husbands and friends gathered at the Eubie Blake Cultural Center, in Center City. there to listen to, to concentrate on, to respond to the beat provided by John R. Lamkin, II, trumpet, Paul Bollenbach, guitar, and Vaughn Bratcher, bass.

Lamkin, lecturer in music and band director of the University of Maryland Eastern Shore, immediately assumed the role of professor, with the Pierians becoming the eager pupils.

The subject was "Contemporary Jazz," what it is, where it came from and where it is going. There were ample illustrations by the trio as they played the music of Dizzie Gillespie, Lee

Saturday, Feb. 8 was a banner day for the Baltimore Tuskegee Alumni Association. It was the day, they presented their fourth annual Carver - Washington Scholarship Awards Breakfast.

Despite the snow and ice which blanketed the ground outside, nearly 500 folks came out for this affair, which was inspirational from start to finish.

The musical selection, 'Lift Every Voice and Sing' (our own Black National Anthem) started the morning on an uplifting note. Welcome and the Occasion were done by E. Lee Lassiter, publicity chairperson and columnist for the Baltimore News American. He gave as purposes for the attempt to act out and act on education; the faith of the alumni group in education, especially as it relates to youth at Tuskegee and youth bound for there, and to laud honorees who exemplify qualities of Dr. Booker T. Washington and George Washington Carver.

Following the invocation by Herbert Roche, chaplain, alumni members, guests and honorees enjoyed a good 'ole southern breakfast of ham and eggs, hot biscuits, home fries and grits, (replete with gravy) coffee and breakfast pastries of a wide variety.

The assemblags was treated to the dulcet tones of Tracey Harrison, of Western High School, who sang with fervor, "God Bless the Child." She was accompanied by Audrey McCallum, Head, Music Dept., Western High School.

Dr. Lafayette Frederick National Tuskegee Alumni Association president, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Benjamin F. Payton, president, Tuskegee University. Dr. Payton, the fifth president of Tuskegee, stressed the fact that we must "keep our eyes on the goals that are important." He spoke of the proposed National Budget and its inequities, alluding to it emphasis on things other than education, and said, "We must have people who take a look at the budget, a look at the people, where we are going and how we must get there.

"We cannot survive," he asserted, "if we forget about youth who cannot survive without an education.

"There can be no future for anybody in this society if we do not protect that basic need of educating our youth."

He spoke of Booker T. Washington and George Washington Carver, their outlooks on education and industriousness, black pride.

He also spoke with pride of the quality of education one can get at Tuskegee University, the fact that it precudes people with technological manpower.

Cuff Note: Tuskegee was the second largest producer of black engineers in the country last
