WOODLAWN HIGHLIGHTS

STUDENTS PERFORM IN DANCE FESTIVAL

Early this month the Baltimore Public School System presented a festival of Dance at Mergenthaler Vocational Technical High School. The festival featured dance teams representing eight city public schools.

Iziah Davis, a senior at Walbrook High School and the only male participant, stole the show with his professional dance interpretations and his ability to stand out as a student choreographer. Under his direction the Walbrook team used color streamers to create a kaleidoscopic mystic while performing two dance numbers dressed in striking costumes and painted faces.

Western High School presented two breathtaking imitation take-offs on a chorus line engaged in a Broadway rehearsal scene and a diamond-studded high hat chorus line routine.

The New City College High School's white-gloved dance team performed to the theme "Dance Communications through Expressions." Their lavender leotards and matching skirts were made by Mrs. Darlene Stewart, mother of dancer Michele Stewart.

A special improvisation dance called "Peace of the River" was dedicated to the memory of the late Celestine Alexander, who served as Coordinator of Women's inter-scholastic athletics.

Edmondson, Carver, Northern, Southwestern and "Mervo" high schools also presented outstanding performances during the Sunday afternoon festival. John Hairright is principal at "Mervo."

DRILL TEAM HOSTS DISCO

An overflow crowd of merry-makers including 30 visitors from the Philadelphia Sheba Hall Lodge No. 7, Prince Hall Masons, attended a recent disco hosted by the Baltimore based Jerusalem Court No. 1, Daughters of Isis Drill Team. The Annual Disco was held at the Masonic Temple Headquarters on Eutaw St.

While comfortably housed in 15 rooms at the Pikesville Inn, the Philadelphia visitors completed plans to return to Baltimore on Thursday, February 16 to sponsor a Bull Roast at Martins West on Dogwood Rd.

THE ULTIMATE FRAGRANCE EXPERIENCE

Because wearing fragrance boldly reveals to others our fashionability, our femininity, even our self-esteem, it's worth it to wear the ultimate, and most prestigious fragrance form: perfume.

Perfume is to fragrance what diamonds are to jewelry. It is the richest expression of fragrance; the masterful blending of costly and rare oils. One drop of rose oil, for example, is the essence of thousands of rose petals. Others can only be found in remote, exotic places. An artist, blending these oils with hints of very special alcohols, creates fine perfume.

Avon, in celebration of its 100 years of fragrance history, has created Devotée Perfume. Brilliance and breath-taking loveliness are its qualities. The scent is adventuresome and spicy, with an unfolding of floral tones to adorn you day and night.

Devotée is a vision of the [illegible] future of fragrance, fashion and packaging. Its beautiful lead crystal bottle embedded in a gold-toned pillar is a limited edition, destined to become a collector's treasure.

Devotée is a tribute you can give yourself or present to other special women, in Perfume or Spray Cologne. Ask your Avon Representative about it soon; the Perfume is only available for a limited time. If you don't have Avon Representative, call 800-858-8000.
