WOODLAWN HIGHLIGHTS

GOODWILL AMBASSADORS FETED

The Baltimore Office of Promotion and Tourism recently celebrated "Pride In Baltimore Week" with an elaborate party at the Brokerage on Market Place. The Brokerage, a two story building, completed will be a combination of office buildings and shops in an atmosphere resembling Bourbon Street in New Orleans.

The decor features wrought-iron railings, stained glass windows, gas lights and plenty of plants. The first floor promenade of the house the various brick front stores beneath a second-floor balcony. A Chinese foot bridge connects each side of the balcony and can be reached by escalator. The kick-off event was staged to salute Baltimore service industry employees who greet the visitors who arrive in the city each day. Enjoying the red carpet treatment were cab drivers, hotel desk clerks and sky caps who were dubbed "Front Line Goodwill Ambassadors," because their task is to sell Baltimore to tourists.

There were several other special guests among the informal group participating in the red and white balloon-decorated Valentine's Day party. Some of the guests were lucky enough to go home with one of the many exciting door prizes: a cruise for two on the Lady Baltimore and the "Clipper City," tickets to shows at the Pelis Point dinner theatre, special passes to restaurants in the downtown area and free entry to the Aquarium, Constellation, Museum of Arts, Six Flags Power Plant and the "Top of the World" observation deck.

There was plenty of food transported from Chi Chi's new Mexican restaurant, Bennigan's Restaurant and Lounge and hot dogs from Dogs Place. Music was provided by the Madison Street Dixieland Band and Imaginimie.

Mary Lou Baker and Brent Burkhardt, who both represent the Office of Promotion and Tourism, served as host and hostess.

DELTAS WORSHIP AT EPWORTH

The Epworth United Methodist Church celebrated the first Sunday of Lent with a "Dedication of Life" led by the Baltimore County Alumni chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. The popular sorority sisters were accompanied by the "Scrollers."

The "Scrollers" are men who are working towards the day when they will become Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Brothers in the County chapter.

E. Cathy Carr, a member of the Columbia Deltas was the morning speaker. Her message was titled "Confronting Each Other In Love." Ms. Carr surprised most of the congregation by also raising her appealing voice in song. Another soloist was Ms. Janice Bowie who rendered a solo "If I Can Help Somebody."

Be sure to catch FEMALE PACESETTERS next week.

Sunday matinee at Arena

The Arena Playhouse matinee special this Sunday, Feb. 23, is Langston Hughes' "Little Ham." Sponsors are members of the Gift Shop Committee of the Banneker-Douglass Museum in Annapolis.

Call these Baltimore numbers for your tickets now, 462-2066 or 653-2132 for the 1:30 p.m. reception and the delightful stage play, "Little Ham."

This comedy by Langston Hughes is an unprecedented revival of the 1920's and 1930's in New York's Harlem. Little Ham, an amorous shoe shiner meets his love match when he encounters the rotund proprietor of a hair dressing establishment.

The influence of the daily illegal numbers racket, local and downtown gangsters, the world of jazz, the Lindy Hop and Dancing at The Savoy are fondly recalled. You'll Love It!

Section is very busy making plans for Council Year 1986-87. The President and the Program Planning Committee announced that the Council held its first meeting of the new year recently at the Helene Fuld School of Nursing. Speaker at this meeting was Mrs. Betsy Simon, Coordinating Director of Health Services, Nursing Division, Coppin State College.

Mrs. Simon addressed Health Care Issues for Women, emphasizing the need for women to be cognizant of stress factors in our every day living, especially so because of the numerous roles played by women (homemakers, career persons, etc.). Her talk generated enthusiastic discussion among the membership.

The calendar for 1986 highlights many interesting activities. Among the highlights is a "Mini-Institute" on International Concerns to be held on March 8 at The Park Heights Street Academy, and a Program Planning Workshop" to be held in the General Meeting Session - Helene Fuld Nursing School on March 9.

An exciting Cultural Tour is also now available for this luxurious Motor Coach Tour to Washington, DC, the theme being ROOTS: Inspiration For Progress.

The tour will include visits to the Bethune Museum & Archives, Museum of African Art and lunch at the new Hozzate Restaurant. Interested!! For further information call 466-3534 or 752-8216.

Throughout Black History Month the Council will also be saluting notable persons local and national, who personify the ideals of Mary McLeod Bethune. These salutes will come via the media, so be looking and listening for them.

A Dinner Cruise is also in the offering, date to be announced. The community is cordially invited to participate in these activities.

The membership of the Greater Baltimore Section exceeds 100 persons, and several affiliated organizations, among them are the Matilda Monroe Missionary Society, Ebenezer AME Church; Zeta Phi Beta, Alpha Zeta Chapter and Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, Inc. Individual memberships are representative of all of the leading organizations in the community.

Officers of the Council are first, second and third vice-presidents respectively, Verna Day, Edwardina Brown and Roseanna Davis. Secretarial duties are performed by Bettye Lindsay, Mary James (Corres), and Theda Glover (Financial).

Parliamentarian and Chaplain, respectively are Emma Dudley and Geraldine Boyer. International Advocate for the group is Beryl Williams.

SINGLE PARENTING

"A CALL TO ACTION"

No doubt you've heard and seen the two-hour documentary on teenage single parents which aired a couple of weeks ago. This documentary opened up the eyes and ears of many.

Now here locally, another source of support is emerging from the business community. Summit II...support for the single parent, which is being sponsored by the Baltimore County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

On Saturday, February 22, at the Randallstown High School from 2 until 6 p.m., parents, school teachers, local officials and other concerned communities will come together to provide answers and resources for the single parent. It is the goal of the Baltimore County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. to provide a cooperative action to focus on the needs of single parents.

The Summit will consist of ways to fight back as a single parent from any age group, identifying the problems of the children of single parents, housing information, education, counselling, social services, church involvement-health care, before and after school programs, and financial management.

The public is encouraged to join them in their effort in strengthening the single parent family, and two-parent families in the community.

When we think of being a parent, regardless of the age, we must remember that it is our time to react accordingly, adjust, and trudge forward to help ourselves.

The Reagan Administration knows no color, and when we stop and think about it, it is a problem that will effect not only the other people, but you as well. Somehow, someway, the problems of the teenaged single parent affects every household.

There are some who look at the teenaged parent as fulfilling the religious gospel and there are others who are shocked by the rising statistics, but whatever your belief may be, it is something that you must become involved with.

For more information regarding the Summit II conference on Saturday, call E. Jolivet, 922-3592 evenings, or V. Montague 597-1109.

For those of you who think you missed our Valentine's Dance.....it was postponed because of the snow! The dance will take place on Friday, February 28, at the Rose Price House in Columbia.

For more information call 466-5504, 567-6285 or 396-4874.

Admission is $7.00 for non-members, which includes the food, beer and wine....$6.00 for members and $13.00 for couples.

Dare to be More.
