'Twas standing room only as the Left Bank Jazz Society held its opening concert of the season at a new location this week. And, to say the least, LBJS was completely surprised and pleased by the response.

Since a crowd of this size was not expected—preparations were not made to handle the influx, so a hurryup call for help was needed to cope with the situation.

This was accomplished in part by Frank Maddox, who was able to acquire some additional tables and chairs—we won't tell where he got them—we're just happy he did.

Lou Donaldson and Jimmy McGriff were in top form, and played to please the assembled crowd, although they were completely invisible from the back of the room.

This will be remedied at the next concert, when the artists will perform from the stage which is at the extreme end of the hall.

And indeed, there is a full-fledged swimming pool in front of the stage, but by putting the musicians under the proscenium, more table space will be available.

Next concert is scheduled for March 23, when Jimmy Heath and his group will be featured. Jimmy will have Stafford James, bass; Tony Purrone, guitar, among his backup. Naturally we'll have more about this as the time nears.

Wynton Marsalis comes to town tonight for what was scheduled as a three-day gig at Ethel's place. The response has been overwhelming.

In fact, if you were planning to make one of the shows at Baltimore's No. 1 Jazz Club last Monday, it was completely sold out. Word leaked so that a Monday night performance has been set for March 3.

Suction surrounding Krinda is as a lie to those who have been beguiling the unsuspecting Baltimore audiences won't support what they consider a high cover charge to see jazz artists.

Just want to let them know that Wynton Marsalis gig has a $15 each cover charge—and that's just for one set.

Little Jimmie Scott is indeed coming to town. After a lot of machinations — changes of date, place, and time — things have been firmed up.

The event will occur on March 22, and happen at the Sportsmen's Lounge over on Gwynn Oak Ave. There will be two shows and a $12 cover charge.

Understand that Jimmie is bringing in a 5-piece backup group with him, so this is shaping up to be a real production. Expect to be chatting with Maxine, entrepreneur of the date to get the final details.

Upcoming March 16 is a concert by one of our favorite people, Ruby Glover at the Eubie Blake Cultural Arts Center over at N. Charles St.

It's being called the Ruby Glover Jazz Suites, and knowing Ruby, you can believe she refers to it as Jazz Sweets. She's really excited over this session, and calls it a part of her dream.

She'll be backed up by Charlie Covington and his trio, which should let you know that a solid evening of jazz is projected. There will be a $5 charge for the evening.

Incidently, Ruby alerted me to the fact that the drummer with Brittisher Phil Collins who won all that stuff at the Grammys, is a Baltimorean.

His name is Chester Thompson, and he attended Douglass High School.

Got a call from an old friend, O'Donel Butch Levy, who is back home after a lengthy overseas jaunt. He is a part of the group which includes flutist Herbie Mann, along with O'Donels regular group.

From here, they want to Florida, where they played a club owned by Burt Reynolds; thence to St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands, and from there to Australia where they played a few weeks in Melbourne.

They made stops and played gigs in Singapore, Tokyo, and even visited West Africa, where they played in Dakar, Senegal. They'll be in this area for about three weeks.

O'Donel is currently appearing over in Alexandria, Va at the Old Town Club, along with Keter Betts and Marc Cohen. He'll be heading back to L.A. following this gig.

Theatre
'Night Mother'

Theatre Morgan presents "Night Mother" by Marsha Norman, through March 2 and March 6 through March 9 at 8:00 in the Murphy Fine Arts Buildings Turpin-Lamb Theatre. "Night Mother" is a lyrical compassionate and sometimes funny script that reveals a family's haunted soul. Tickets will be $5 for general admission and $2 for students. For further information, please call 444-3343.

'The Entertainer'

Essex Community College will present "The Entertainer," which firmly established John Osborne as England's leading playwright of the 1950's. The play brings to life both the last years of the English Music Hall and a family struggling for survival in a changing world. The performance will run on specified dates from March 7 through March 14. For specific dates, time and ticket information, please call 522-1269.

TV Training Program
WBAL-TV

WBAL-TV is accepting applications for its Broadcast Training Program. This program, now in its thirteenth year, provides theoretical and practical training covering operational television broadcasting techniques. Persons interested in applying for this program should contact the WBAL-TV Engineering Department at 338-6456. Applications will be accepted through April.

Today is the last day in February on the day we were supposed to travel on "Best on Wors in Entertainment for 1985." Due to the limitation of space this week, we are holding off printing the list until next week.

We will tell you now, however, the winner of the Night Out Of the Town with Friday Plus who was randomly selected by the panel of judges.

Since you did not include your phone number, Arlinoy, we were unable to reach you. Get in touch with us soon as possible so we can make the arrangements for your night out with Friday Plus.

Congratulations, Anthony.

Leon Isaac Kennedy, that sexy, spiritual former husband of Jayne Bergeal Jirie Jones left the comforts of the city, to promote his current releases "Knights of the City" and "Hollywood Vice Squad."

Kennedy, who moved in the Bollimore Plaza Hotel where we had the chance to gill him on his life, his loves on and his new movies.

Kennedy when moved into co-wrote and co-produced "Big Time." He later went on to films and Hollywood would probably take Kennedy said, "so I figured that he would be successful in three months to be successful in there.

"Every other city had taken me six months. It took ten years." Kennedy when moved into television production and co-wrote and co-produced a pilot that starred Redd Foxx.

He later went on to films and duce family movies, he pointed out that he has to make films that make money over a lot of these films don't make the kind of profits that Keep Investors interested.

"I do Maximum Efficiency in the independent film market with

Leon Isaac Kennedy

Movies or MEM, Kennedy said. "It's sinful to spend 520-30 million dollars on one film."

With his current film "Knights of the City," Kennedy was able to avoid the pitfalls of the movie business and "worst" going to get high anymore because he saw how much energy this job required and he wanted the job.

He filmed 90 kids from the streets who had never performed anywhere and would probably never have been given an opportunity to work in a major motion picture.

"I've never been afraid to dream, Kennedy says "our am I afraid to help others make their dreams come true."

Kennedy's dreams certainly spiritual and sexy actor, writer, producer is one force to be reckoned with in Hollywood.

When he showed up for work, After working he long 10 to 12 hours the work day required, he guy came through and had Kennedy, guy came because he saw how much energy this job required and he wanted the job.

Kennedy, who doesn't problem, he pointed out that he has to make films that make money and co-produced family movies—they show a high profit margin—yet when questioned further on why he doesn't produce films that never lost any money, Kennedy is quick to point out that his films have never lost any money.

Kennedy's quick to point out that he doesn't get a chance to work consistently."

"This is why it is important for black entrepreneurs to pool their own money and get their own films on. There are so many talented black entertainers that don't get a chance to work consistently."

Kennedy's quick to point out that his films have never lost any money.
