Francis Gates led Black History Tour

MEMBERS OF THE PHI BETA SIGMA FRATERNITY led by FRANCIS W. Gates on their annual pilgrimmage to historic sites on the Eastern Shore associated with Frederick Douglass, who was born during February, 1817. Those present included (L to R): A.R. Fields, vice president, M. Barnes, district director; Leroy Connor; Benjamin F. Graham, Francis W. Gates, secretary; Michael Myers, president; William O. Hall, treasurer, Lacey Myers and James Washington.

Francis W. Gates, the Chairman of Morgan State University's Board of Regents, recently led a delegation of his fellow members of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity on a tour of historic sites associated with Frederick Douglass, the famed Black abolitionist who was born on the Eastern Shore during February of 1817.

Among the sites visited were Bell Chapel AME Church in Easton where Frederick Douglass worshipped and a commemorative marker near Denton, MD.

Following the tour of historic sites, an elegant reception was held in the residence of Gages, where delicious hors d- oeures were served to the participants in the fascinating event.

During the days activities special accolades were given to Gates for his continuing interest in preserving Black history and his dedicated service to the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Delta Gamma Sigma Chapter.

Francis Wheatley Gates was born in Easton, MD. on December 14, 1924 into a large happy family, a friendly neighborhood, where the school and church played major roles in his formative years.

He is a graduate of Bowie State College, Bowie, MD. and of Loyola College in Baltimore, MD. where he received the B.S. and M.Ed. respectively.

In 1948 Gates began his career of 32 years in the State of Maryland's educational system as a teacher of social studies at Robert Moton High School in Westminster, MD.

His next 15 years were spent in principalships at Johnsville Elementary School, Sykesville, Maryland; Robert Moton High School, Westminster, MD and Lockerman High School, Denton, MD.

He was appointed Supervisor of Special Services with the Caroline County Maryland Board of Education in 1966. From 1967 until his retirement in July, 1980, he held staff positions with the Maryland State Department of Education as Supervisor of Instruction, Specialist in Federal Programs for the Educationally Disadvantaged and Chief of Migrant Education.

He presently serves part-time on the faculty at Sojourner-Douglass College in Baltimore and as a guest lecturer in education for disadvantaged youth at Delaware State College, Dover DE.

Gates is playing a significant role in the Fourth Era, July 1, 1975 to present, of Morgan State University as the Chairman of its Board of Regents. He serves as secretary of the Board and holds memberships on the Academic and Student Affairs Committee, Special Committee on Regents-Faculty-Staff Relations, Advisory Management and Mission Study, Ad-Hoc Tenure, and Ad Hoc Administration Review committees.

He is actively involved in Bethel A.M.E. Church in Easton, MD. where he is a member of the Trustee Board and director of the Gospel Choir. He has formerly served his church as a Steward, an usher, assistant organist and, for thirteen years, was District Superintendent of Sunday Schools for the Easton District of the Baltimore Annual Conference.

He has been a delegate to the General Conference of the A.M.E. Church four times and was actively involved in the successful election of four bishops.

He is presently a member of the General Board of the A.M.E. Church and serves as vice chairman of the Commission on Higher Education and as a member of the Commissions of Social Action and Laymen. He is also a volunteer student recruiter for Allen University.

He is a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity; Easton Star #16 Masonic Lodge; Western Maryland Consistory #270; Annie C. Smith Chapter #61, Order of the Eastern Star; Caroline County Retired Teachers Association; National Education Association; American Association of School Business Officials; University of Maryland Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa; former Governing Board of the Migrant and Seasonal Farmworkers Association, Caroline County Chapter of the N.A.A.C.P., and is Commander of Blake-Blackston Post #77, The American Legion.

He is the recipient of many achievement and service awards, among which are: the Second Episcopal District Laymen's Award; the Phi Beta Sigma Education Award; Educator of the Month Award by the "Migrant Educator," a national magazine for his "commitment and dedication to the improvement of educational opportunities for migrant children," and a special citation from The Honorable Harry Hughes, Governor of Maryland, in 1981 for outstanding service to the state.

He is married to Mrs. Ada Baker Gates, a special education teacher in the Caroline County School System. They have a daughter, Pamela, who is a physical education teacher, and a grandson.

In honoring Gates at the 1981 Morgan State University Scholarship Fundraiser, the citation read: "He is a scholar, educator, administrator, community leader, church worker, family man, fraternal brother, friend, humanitarian and exemplary citizen."

Alcohol Prevention Program, is designed for adolescents and their parents. Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention, a national program of The Links, Inc., is known as project LEAD (Listen Learn Alcohol and Drug Abuse).

Their forthcoming "SPRING SPLENDOR" along with the Souvenir Journal will serve as a vehicle to sustain essential preventive programs for all of the community, meeting the needs of the elderly, providing scholarships, supporting the arts and the talented and helping those most in need, to develop self reliance to become productive citizens in the Baltimore Community. It would be their delight to have your organization and or business to advertise in our Souvenir Journal. The Journal will be distributed to 12[illegible] individuals attending the fund raising event.

It is their pleasure to forward the information to you, in order to give ample time for your response. They look forward to having you join them in this effort so that, together, all may participate in providing hope for tomorrow as well as improving the quality of life we all seek.

AWA FEATURES SOCIAL NIGHT

The Baltimore Inner Harbour Chapter of the American Business Women's Association (AWA) will feature Business Appreciate and Family Appreciation Night at its regular monthly meeting on March 25 at Best Western Harbour City Inn, located in downtown Baltimore, according to Veronica Henry, chapter president, ABWA and its chapters hold this event annually to honor those who have made important contributions to the individual chapters. The Inner Harbour Chapter has done so for four years previous.

Among the honorees will be Jim Ransom and Cookie Britt, owners of the Guest House Bakery and Deli as well as several 7-11 stores for services rendered in behalf of the chapter that brought about the success of several chapter functions.

Each year the chapter recognizes one individual as the most inspirational speaker to have addressed the group over the past year. This honor will be awarded to Councilwoman Agnes Welch (4th Councilmanic District), who was guest speaker in September of last year.

In addition, several chapter members will be honoring family members and friends with Certificates of Appreciation.

Patricia Jones, chairman of this year's activities, stated that the guest speaker for the evening will be Dorothy Brunson, owner of WEBB Am and FM radio stations who will address the group on a topic based on women in business. Miss Jones further added that the group will also hear from Paula Cullings, a chapter member, as the vocational speaker.

The activities will begin promptly at 5:30 p.m. with cocktails, followed by dinner and the program outlined above.

Interested persons should contact Patricia Jones, Chairman, Business Associate Night at 433-6825, after 5 p.m.

SINGLE PARENTING

RESPONSIBILITY AND TEEN MANAGEMENT

Sometimes it is difficult to decide on whether the punishment fits the circumstance. But too often I hear about parents who are treating their teens like adults.

We all know that adolescents are difficult to understand. And we all agree that undue strict punishment sometimes doesn't work. A typical case of what seems to be happening in today's household is that parents are letting their children assume the role of an adult.

Charlotte has a son of 15. She was asked by an organization if her son could attend a seminar for young adolescents. Charlotte's reply was that she really didn't know what her son had planned for the weekend and before she could make any commitment she would have to talk to him. As it turned out, Charlotte's son had nothing planned but to sit around the house all day ... he decided that he wanted to do nothing!

Now, on who must ask what's

Hints For Homemakers/Inez Kaiser

Dry, Tight Skin Need Not Be A Problem

DEAR INEZ: My face always feels so dry and tight. In fact, I am embarrassed about its cracked appearance. What can I use to clean my face and still leave it soft and smooth?

—EMBARRASSED EMMA

DEAR EMBARRASSED EMMA: There is no need for you to be embarrassed about the appearance of your face. Just stop using ordinary soap and start cleaning your face with DOVE beauty bar.

For years I have been telling women all over America to start using DOVE because it contains one-quarter moisturizing cream, plus mild cleansing agents which leave your skin feeling soft and smooth.

All you have to do is to join the millions of women who have given up their ordinary soaps and have taken the DOVE seven-day test. It's real easy.

Just wash your face with DOVE for seven days. At that time, you, too, will be convinced that DOVE makes your skin feel the way it should—soft and smooth.

DOVE beauty bar doesn't dry your face like soap because soap strips away your skin's natural moisturizers. And DOVE is so much milder than soap.

In fact, Dr. Albert Kligman of the University of Pennsylvania conducted a study to check the irritancy of 18 well-known toilet bars and their effect on skin. The study proved that DOVE was the only bar tested that could truly be called "mild." That places DOVE in a class by itself.

So stop worrying about the feel and appearance of your skin and, for once, do something about it. The women who use DOVE say it is far better than soap. They agree it really does make your skin feel soft and smooth.

You can feel assured your skin will feel softer, too. No doubt about it—just try DOVE and see.

WANT WHITER TEETH, FRESH BREATH?

IT IS IMPORTANT FOR WOMEN to have soft, smooth skin for men to touch, but it's also necessary to have whiter teeth and fresh breath for those close-up situations. This means that extra care should be taken to make yourself as attractive as possible.

One sure way that's bound to help a lot is to use the right toothpaste—one that will whiten your teeth and assure you of having fresh breath at the same time. That toothpaste is CLOSE-UP. You can always count on it to do the job.

CLOSE-UP contains a real mouthwash to freshen your breath, special whiteners to get your teeth their whitest and, in addition, it has fluoride protection.

Fluoride is important because it provides extra cavity-fighting benefits. In fact, CLOSE-UP provides as much fluoride protection as the leading fluoride toothpaste.

Regardless of your age, you can feel confident of yourself in those cozy close-up situations if you use CLOSE-UP toothpaste. The important thing to remember is that you really become attractive by the way you act and the way you dress and, just as important, by the way you groom yourself—including your teeth and your breath.

So look for CLOSE-UP in your neighborhood store and buy yourself the new pump version for added convenience.

SUNLIGHT CUTS TOUGH STUFF LOOSE

SPEAKING OF LOVE, you will just love using SUNLIGHT liquid dishwashing detergent. SUNLIGHT provides the cleaning power that cuts through the toughest dishwashing jobs like baked-on, cooked-on, stuck-on dried foods—even grease.

There is no need to let dishes just sit, especially with SUNLIGHT available. Dishes that sit are the toughest to clean, but SUNLIGHT does the job.

Anyone who ever washed dishes by hand—men as well as women—knows that the toughest job in the sink is getting rid of those tough, baked-on stains. That's what SUNLIGHT does best.

And on top of everything else, SUNLIGHT has a clean, lemon fragrance that makes everything it touches smell better as well as look cleaner.

SUNLIGHT makes dishwashing easier and cuts the tough stuff loose. It also makes your glassware and silverware look brighter.

What more could you ask of a dishwashing detergent?
