

Matters, and Judiciary committees, one representative of the Department of Legislative Reference, one representative of the Department of Fiscal Services, the Chaplain, reporters and correspondents of the press and of radio and television broadcasting in such numbers and subject to such floor restrictions as determined by the Speaker from time to time, and stenographers admitted by the Speaker to take down debates] and such other persons as designated by the Speaker. Provided, however, that any person who is employed to promote or oppose legislation, within the terms of Sections 5 to 14, inclusive, of Article 40 of the Annotated Code (1957 Edition, as amended), shall not have the privilege of the House floor during the period of his employment. A motion to suspend this rule must be submitted in writing to the House at least one day prior to the time of its consideration.

The second amendment applying only to the Special Session beginning December 16, 1969, is as follows, and supersedes any rule in conflict thereof:

During the Special Session of December 16, 1969, all bills and resolutions introduced into the House of Delegates shall be referred initially to the Committee on Rules and Executive Nominations.

ORDER

By the Speaker:

Ordered, that the Honorable William M. Houck of Frederick County be designated as Majority Floor Leader of the House of Delegates for this Special Legislative Session of 1969 and as, ex-officio, a member of all standing committees of the House, and the Honorable W. Dale Hess of Harford County be designated as Majority Whip of the House.

Read and adopted.

BILLS VETOED BY THE GOVERNOR

The House then considered the Bills of the 1969 Session vetoed by the Governor.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Annapolis, Md., May 28, 1969.

Honorable Thomas Hunter Lowe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 27 and am returning it to you.

This Bill revises those provisions of Article 43 of the Annotated Code of Maryland dealing with medical practices in the State. While the Bill represents a desirable revision of those provisions of Article 43, I have been advised by the Attorney General's office that there is an irreconcilable conflict between House Bill 27 and Senate Bill 404 which was enacted by the General Assembly, and that the conflict could not be resolved by the order in which the Bills were signed. For the reason given in the attached
