or Chemical Engineering major and Alicia Joyner, freshman, American University, Psychology major. Each of the eight recipients has been awarded a $4,000 Scholarship. (16 scholarships have been awarded since 1981).

The honorees talents were strikingly showcased during the event. Tracey Harrison, in powerful and dulcet tones, sang "The Highest Praise," accompanied by Rodney Whitley. Jocelyn M. Taylor sang "Silent Mood," accompanied by Soror Gloria Street, and Margaret A. Petty, in a voice with a fantastic range, did a soul-stirring rendition of "Let's All Live and Give Together," accompanied by Derrick Hopkins.

A dramatic presentation "For My People" by Margaret Walker, was done by honorees Kim Hall, Luwanda Walker and Wendy P. White.

During the Honorees' Response, Doris L. Patterson eloquently spoke to the theme, Service with a Global Perspective,' and added to it 'Spanning The Chasm', charging blacks to help touch the lives of others.

As each honoree was awarded her certificate, her parents or friends stood and were recognized.

Absent due to their studies were Detrus Ondina Janifer and Gyl Beth Johnson. Gyl Beth wrote a moving letter of thanks for the honor of being chosen and her mother and father received her certificate and carnation.

In the foyer, the art and writings of the honorees formed an eye-catching exhibit.

It was an inspirational afternoon, from start to finish. Co-Chairperson was Mary M. Young.

Deborah E. Young weds Jerome C. Butler

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome C. Butler Newlyweds

Miss Deborah Elaine Young and Jerome Christopher Butler recently exchanged wedding vows at 12 p.m. at Sargent Memorial Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C.

The bride is the daughter of Eugene and Mildred Young of Lanham, MD. She is a graduate of Towson State University and is working on a masters degree at Bowie State College. She is employed by the Anne Arundel County school system as a kindergarten teacher.

The groom is the son of Junis and Ida Butler of Landover, MD. He is employed as an accountant for Coast to Coast Travel and Resort Agency. He is a graduate of The University of Maryland.

The Rev. James L. Allen officiated. Tony Peacock, Jerry Pickens and Ms. Terry Reis presented a program of wedding music. Mrs. Luvenia George was the church organist and Wilbur Belton guest organist.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was escorted by her father. She wore a Mori Lee Original with a Queen Ann neckline and pearl beaded Alencon lace covering the bodice. Sleeves were made of a chiffon puff with an extended stretch cuff which ended in a point. The chiffon skirt was covered with Alencon appliques around the bottom. A Cathedral length train flowed behind her.

Miss Young topped off her appearance by wearing a beaded alencon hat with a fingertip length veil and blusher.

Miss Yvonne Harris of Laurinburg, NC, cousin of the bride, was Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Ms. Kim Butler of Landover, MD, the groom's cousin; Mrs. Michele Sims of Fairfax, VA, Mrs. Dorsetta Lewis of Dover, DE and Ms. Lavern Musgrove of Clinton, MD, friends of the bride. The flower girl was Patricia Brock and the ring bearer Norvell Smith Jr.

The groom's brother Jeffrey Butler of Lanham, MD was the best man. Other groomsmen were Gregory Butler of Landover, cousin of the groom; Raymond Carter of Landover, and Ralph Vinson of Suitland, MD, friends of the groom and Marvin Young of Laurel, MD, brother of the bride.

Ushers were Tony Butler of Crystal City, VA, cousin of the groom, and Harold Wade of Landover, MD, friend of the groom.

Mrs. Ruby G. Macon, Godmother of the bride directed the wedding.

At the reception guests were registered upon arrival at the Burgundy Room of Saint Mary's Catholic Church by cousins of the bride Ms. Ramona and Sharon Cheek.

The bride's grandfather is Mr. James N. Harris of Warrenton, NC. The bride's grandmothers; Ms. Ethel Richardson of Rantoul, IL and Ms. Caroline Young of Hamlet, NC attended the wedding along with aunts, uncles and cousins of Rantoul, IL, Buffalo, NY, Hamlet, NC and Lanham.

After spending their honeymoon at Paradise Island in the Bahamas, the couple is ' at home in Lanham.

Beauty Talk

BY JEAN FORD

"TAKE TIME...FOR BEAUTIFUL RESULTS"

Now your skin needs extra pampering to protect it from winter's chill. Take a few minutes, morning and night, to follow these steps for lasting good looks from head to toe.

First, cleanse to remove makeup. Follow with a toner to stimulate your skin and, to remove the last traces of dirt and cleanser. Then "specialize." Use products that provide care and prevention for your skin's specific needs, helping your skin to repair itself from the ravages of winter weather. Finally, moisturize to protect your skin from the environment and to replenish your skin's moisture supply.

To receive the maximum benefits use products formulated specifically for the needs of your skin type. Also, choose products from the same line or regimen to ensure that product formulas complement each other.

Avon's Pure Care is formulated for all skin types, including sensitive skin. It is non-irritating and 100% fragrance free. This makes it ideal for our skin since irritation often results in dark spots.

Don't stop your beauty treatment at the base of your neck! Your entire body needs moisturizing to prevent dryness and ashiness caused when dry cells form on dark skin.

Always apply moisturizers, such as the one from Avon's Moisture Therapy, the complete body care line that dramatically relieves extremely dry or fragrance-sensitive skin.

Remember, beautiful skin is cared for skin, and that begins with you. To learn more, contact your Avon Representative.

COLUMBIA CAPERS

KAPPAS CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

The Columbia (MD) Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. celebrated its twelfth chartering anniversary last weekend. Highlights of the celebration were a reclaimation and rededication meeting on Saturday and a worship service at Grace A.M.E. Church in Catonsville on Sunday.

More than 40 handsome members, including undergraduates from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (Theta Chi Chapter), attended the Saturday meeting.

The founding Polemarch, William A. Ross, Sr., challenged the members to rededicate themselves to setting positive role models for black male youths.

A brotherly invitation to worship at Grace A.M.E. Church was extended because it also was a special day at the church. It was their annual Men's Day and Vice Polemarch Louis Diggs, a resident of Catonsville, was co-chairman of the Men's Day activities.

The beautiful members of Grace A.M.E. Church were blessed in three ways — to have a wonderful minister like the Rev. Dr. Reginald Boston as their pastor, to have a distinguished group of dedicated community workers (the Columbia Kappas) worship with them, and certainly, to have the Rev. Dr. John Hurst Adams, Presiding Bishop of the Second Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, as the speaker at the service.

Dr. Adams further charged the men of Kappa and the church to continue to provide positive black male leadership in their communities. Rufus Clanzy is the current Polemarch of the Columbia (MD) Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi, Inc.

A delicious dinner followed the service, free to all in attendance.

ABOUT BISHOP ADAMS

John Hurst Adams is a native of South Carolina, son of the Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Adams of Columbia, SC. He pursued his scholastic achievements at Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, NC, Boston University School of Theology, Boston University Graduate School, Harvard University and the Union Theological Seminary.

Dr. Adams was the recipient of the Black Achievement Award in the area of Religion in 1984 and many other distinguished awards too numerous to mention here.

Bishop Adams is married to Dr. Dolly Deselle Adams, who is the supervisor of the Foreign Missionary Society for the Second Episcopal District of the A.M.E. Church. Bishop Adams was accompanied by his lovely wife at the Grace A.M.E. Church service last Sunday. She is the outgoing national president of Links, Inc. and was one of the organization's finest and most energetic leaders, in my opinion.

The Links are now 217 chapters strong in 38 states and the District of Columbia and carries a membership of 5,995 ladies.

Mrs. Adams, as our Link leader, was instrumental in having each Link contribute to the Link Foundation which recently purchased and remodelled, for more than one million dollars, the Link, Inc. national headquarters at 1200 Massachusetts Ave. in Washington, D.C. The building was dedicated on November 16, 1985 and under Dr. Adams' leadership, was fully paid for at dedication.

IT WAS A REUNION

For Bill and me, last Sunday was a reunion for we were staunch workers at Grace A.M.E. Church for more than fifteen years before moving to Columbia.

Oh! how I miss my good friends at Grace, especially my cooking buddies Mrs. Elnora Randall, Mrs. Naomi Hopewell and Mrs. Mildred (Easter) Hepbron who passed a few years ago. (CUFF NOTE: We used to cook and sell dinners at the church during the Rev. C. C. Brown's and Charles E. Johnson's pastorates. Oh! what a time we had. Those days at Grace were some of the best of our lives.)

Tears flowed from my eyes as I entered the church and embraced so many of my old friends. Believe you me, they are still "REAL" friends who still care about you with sincerity.

On last Sunday, I made an early call to Mrs. Elnora Randall to be sure that she planned to attend the service, and I learned after taking my seat beside her in church that she had shed tears after my call to her. We were bosom church buddies.

She and her husband Thomas are the proud parents of seven lovely children, most of whom are in the school system, many of whom are most active in the church. The Randall family members are lifelong residents of Catonsville.

It was good to see and embrace so many of my friends at Grace including Gertrude Smith, John Brown, Ruth and Lipsher Webb, Elsie Williams, Arnold Ebb, my buddy in Christ, Dr. Ernest Johnson, Joseph Gross, Gloria and Frank Terrell, Thomas Batten, former neighbor, Florence Jenson, a sharp dresser, Mae Esther and Thelma Coe, Lena Baeon, Ann Yancey, Roberta McKinney, John Brown, Granger Fields, and Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Christmas. The Christmases and Dr. Johnson were our immediate neighbors.

It was also good to see Jim Pennington, current President of the Baltimore County Chapter of NAACP, and all the others who were at the service too numerous to mention. We love each and every one of you. Remember Bill and I were newlyweds just starting our family when we came to Catonsville and you embraced us like your own and we appreciate it and love you all dearly.
