1986 MRS. SANTA CAMPAIGN

Mrs. Santa thanks you for your support in this year's campaign

By Elyn Garrett

Since our last column, we have added $1,830.00 to our fund, making it a total of $8,503.00! We have an awful lot of people to thank, so let's get on with it.

On Friday, November 21 we received a check from The New Jockey Club in the amount of $25. This organization is a long time contributor to our campaign and we are glad they returned again this year.

We received a letter from the Myra Grand Chapter, Order Of The Eastern Star inviting us to attend its 90th Annual Grand Session which began on Friday, November 14. We regret that we did not receive the invitation until the day of the event, since the invitation informed us that the Order would be presenting the Campaign with a contribution at the session.

Well, needless to say, we were fit-to-be-tied. However, after a phone call to Mrs. Elaine K. Campbell, Grand Worthy Matron, explaining our dilemma, things were straightened out and it was arranged for Mrs. Campbell along with Mr. Fred L. Bennett, Grand Worthy Patron to visit our offices and make the contribution in person. The check was in the amount of $300. We thank them.

On Monday, November 24, we received monies in the mail from the following Mrs. Santa Helpers: Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Marshall, $30 with a note which read "May God continue blessing you all for your beautiful job in helping those in need." Mr. and Mrs. Webster Powell, $30; Mr. and Mrs. Dallin Wicks, $200; The Douglass High School Class of 1930, $25; Mr Walter R. Dean, Jr., $10; and Mr. and Mrs. Rodman O. Harris, $20.

On Monday, we were invited out to Waters Towers, a Senior Citizens residence, to attend a Pre-Thanksgiving Devotional Service being conducted by the A.M.E. Ministerial Alliance. The service has become a yearly event as has the practice by the Alliance of making a donation to our Campaign during these services.

We were extremely happy to receive a check in the amount of $1,000. Mrs. Ida Murphy Peters, the Mrs. Santa-Emeritus, accompanied us on our visit and was remembered for her past years and fine work as Mrs. Santa.

Members of the A.M.E. Ministerial Alliance include: Rev. Sarah Craft, Rev. Gloria Skinner, Rev. Ann Lightner, Rev. Joan Warton, Rev. John P. Wilson, Rev. James M. Ballard, Sr., Rev. Michael Thomas, Rev. James Pullum, Sr., Rev. Edward O. Hunt, Rev. Willie K. Woods, Rev. Edward C. Wilson, Rev. John W. Duckette, Rev. John M. Harvin.

Also, Rev. John R. Bryant, Rev. Benjamin Faust, Rev. Sandra Moore, Rev. Charlotte Clemons, Rev. Cynthia Harvin, Rev. P. M. Tilghman, Rev. Reginald Boston, Rev. Oscar Christmas, Rev. Vashti McKenzie, and Rev. M. A. Camper.

On Tuesday, November 25, we heard from quite a few of our helpers. Mrs. Effie Haynie, President of the Socialite 6, came into our offices and presented us with $25 from her organization. The club consists of members who have contributed yearly to Mrs. Santa for some 6 years. (Catchy Isn't It?)

We also received a check from Ms. Emma L. Davis in the amount of $10; $20 from Ms. Nellie H. Williams; $25 from Ms. Irene V. Lee $25 from Ms. Helen G. Scotland, and $25 from R. Irene V. Lee and sister Ms. Patricia A. Lee; $25 from Ms. Helen G. Scotland, and $25 from R. Eleanor Scotland; and a check from The Ten Friends Organization, with a note attached which read: "Members of the Ten Friends Club are pleased to make its annual contribution of $50 to the AFRO Mrs. Santa Campaign." We are so very pleased for the support you have all given us.

We would also like to acknowledge the support we received from organizations and private individuals who have assisted us by adopting families which have written us requesting help. We have quite a few to report.

We would like to thank OPERATION NEEDY who assisted our cause by adopting 27 families for Thanksgiving and for Christmas. They have taken it upon themselves to see that these families receive food baskets for Thanksgiving as well as for Christmas.

Mrs. Carolyn Moore is President, Jessie Rubbin is Secretary, Gloria Murray is Treasurer, Vicky McNeill is Financial Secretary, Virginia Moore is Sick Committee Chairperson, and other members include Lillie May Harvey, Dorothy Chambers, Erma Brown, Mary May, Vicky Brown and the Advisor is the Reverend Daniel Moore of the Rising Son Baptist Church on Liberty Heights Avenue.

This orgahization has been together for eight years and has assisted Mrs. Santa in this fine manner for the past seven years.

Also adopting families for the holidays are the United States District Court Clerks Office, which adopted 3 families; Pay Location No. 188 of the Main Post Office, which adopted 1 family; The Intermediate Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity — Justice Johnson, President, adopted 1 family; The Dunbar Senior High School — History Classes of Mr. Dan Brown, Adopted 1 family; Zeta Epsilon Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority of Coppin State College, adopted 1 family; The United Credit Bureau Flash TransUnion, adopted 1 family.

We would also like to acknowledge the efforts of the members of the Pan-Hellenic Council of Coppin State College who adopted a total of 5 families. The officers of the organization, which is a body of Greek-Lettered Fraternities and Sororities, are Dorothea Tucker — President, Karen Sykes — Vice President, Bettye Marshall — Secretary, Foster Campbell — Treasurer, Darrin Lee — Parliamentarian, and Darryl Green — Sergeant-At-Arms.

And as we were writing this column, members of the social organization, "Spice," dropped in with prepared baskets in their cars to feed two families. Members of the group are Mrs. Clarice Brooks, Debbie Tan, Emma Sellers and Venetia Latimer.

The Thanksgiving holiday is behind and because of the help of caring people like those we have mentioned, we were able to supply food baskets for many needy families. The AFRO supplied 46 families with food coupons valued at $15 each to assist them in their Thanksgiving dinner preparations.

It is our hope that through the assistance of other faithful "Mrs. Santa Helpers," we will be able to make the Christmas season a lot merrier for those less fortunate.

Again, our heart-felt THANKS goes out to those who have helped us thus far. "Thanks for your continued "CARING AND SHARING!"

Thanks for your support!! Contributions so far...

Most of the manuscripts chosen for the exhibition are fifteenth - century French and Flemish Books of Hours. The book of Hours had at its core a series of prayers called the Little Office. The office was designed to eight "Hours" to be prayed at eight different times throughout the day, and generally each "Hour" was illustrated with a scene from the life of the Virgin or the early life of Christ.

The Walters Art Gallery has a collection of nearly 300 Books of Hours. The exhibition was organized by Roger Wieck, Assistant Curator of Manuscripts at the Walters. The exhibition Wieck will contain "some of the finest paintings produced in late medieval northern Europe."

Walter O'Neill of the Education Division at the Walters will present a special lecture and tour on "Puer Natus Est: The Nativity Scene in Medieval Manuscripts" every two Saturdays, December 6 and January 13, at 2 p.m.

The Walters Art Gallery is open Tuesday through Sunday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information call the Walters at 547-9000 or the recorded information service at 547-ARTS.

Christmas Story in Medieval Manuscripts at the Walters

The story of Christmas will be the subject of a manuscript exhibition at the Walters Art Gallery during the holiday season. "Puer Natus Est: The Christmas Story in Medieval Manuscripts" opened November 25 in the Manuscript and Rare Book Gallery on the third floor of the Walters and will be on display through January 18.

The exhibition focuses particular attention on the Nativity, the events surrounding the infancy of Christ, including the Annunciation, the Adoration of the Magi and the Flight into Egypt. There are also more personal scenes, such as shepherds in the fields, the early submission of the shepherds to the "First Birth of Christ."

Another rare depiction is of the "virgin's Adoration of the Christ Child," based on the accounts of the Pseudo-Gospel of Pseudo-Matthew and the Gospel of the Saint Bridget of Sweden.

Most of the manuscripts chosen for the exhibition are fifteenth - century French and Flemish Books of Hours. The book of Hours had at its core a series of prayers called the Little Office. The office was designed to eight "Hours" to be prayed at eight different times throughout the day, and generally each "Hour" was illustrated with a scene from the life of the Virgin or the early life of Christ.
