

or revoke the person's license or driving privilege until he does appear for a hearing as requested. Notice to appear shall be complete 7 days after mailing, postage prepaid, to the last address shown in the department's records.

§ 6-207. Department may require reexamination.

If a licensee is involved in an accident resulting in the death of another, or if the department has good cause to believe that a licensee is incompetent or otherwise not qualified to be licensed, the department upon written notice of at least 7 days to the licensee may require him to submit to an examination. Upon the conclusion of the examination the department shall take action as may be appropriate and may suspend or revoke the license of the person or permit him to retain the license, or may issue a license subject to restrictions as permitted under section 6-113. Refusal or neglect of the licensee to submit to the examination may be ground for suspension or revocation of his license.

§ 6-208. Period of suspension; restoration of revoked license.

(a) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a period of more than 1 year, ~~except as permitted under section 6-205.2;~~ but the department, after notice and hearing, may suspend for an indefinite period the license of a person whose physical or mental condition is such that he cannot drive safely. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to or affect the suspension of licenses for failure to comply with the financial responsibility provisions of this article.

(b) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked is not entitled to have the license or privilege renewed or restored unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, ~~except that after the expiration of 6 months in cases of revocation for refusal to submit to a chemical test under the provisions of section 6-205.1,~~ after the expiration of 1 year in cases of second or subsequent revocations, and in all other revocation cases after the expiration of 3 months from the date on which the revoked license was surrendered to and received by the department, the person may apply for a new license as provided by law, and the department may then issue a new license if it is satisfied after investigation of the character, habits, and driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant him the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways. In determining whether to issue a new license the department shall require the applicant to submit to examinations the department deems appropriate.

§ 6-208.1. Reexamination after ~~suspension or~~ revocation under point system.

A person whose license has been ~~suspended or~~ revoked under the Maryland point system shall not have his license reinstated until he has passed to the satisfaction of the department a reexamination of the type specified in section 6-110(a).
