

AS OTHERWISE SPECIFICALLY PROVIDED IN THIS ACT.

~~SEC. 9.~~ And be it further enacted, That all persons who are as of May 31, 1970, classified employees of any board, commission, office or agency abolished by this Act, shall retain their merit system status except as otherwise provided in this Act, and shall be entitled to all of the rights conferred upon such employees by Article 41, Section 6, of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

~~SEC. 10.~~ And be it further enacted, That all books, papers, files records, furniture, fixtures, and all other personal property owned by or in the custody, as of May 31, 1970, of any board, commission, office or agency abolished by this Act, shall be transferred to and be in the ownership or custody of the Department of Personnel created in this Act.

~~SEC. 11.~~ And be it further enacted, That all appropriations and credits on the books, papers, and accounts of any department or other agency of this State, as of May 31, 1970, for and to the credit of any board, commission, office or agency abolished by this Act, and all liabilities and obligations as of May 31, 1970, of any board, commission, office or agency abolished by this Act, shall be transferred to and become the appropriations, credits, liabilities, and obligations of the Department of Personnel herein created.

~~SEC. 12.~~ And be it further enacted, That all forms of the boards, commissions, offices or other agencies included within the Department of Personnel existing on May 31, 1970, together with all rules, regulations, orders and other directives relating thereto, or promulgated thereby, and then in effect, shall continue in force pending exercise by the Secretary or the boards, commissions, offices or agencies of the powers, duties and responsibilities vested in him or them by this Act or by other provisions of law.

~~SEC. 13.~~ And be it further enacted, That if any part of this act, or any section or part of the section thereof, shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining parts of this Act, or any section or part of a section hereof, the General Assembly hereby declaring that it would have passed the remaining parts of this act, or sections or parts of sections hereof, if such unconstitutionality or invalidity had been known; and to this end, all parts, sections, and parts of sections of this act are declared to be severable.

~~SEC. 14.~~ And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws, public general or public local, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed to the extent of any such inconsistency.

~~SEC. 15.~~ And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1970.
