Scenes at the Governor's inauguration

(All photos by Paul Greene)

Pupils from the Germantown, MD. elementary school, were on hand displaying a banner made by the youngsters which proclaimed: "Welcome Baltimore's gift to Maryland." The reference, of course, was to Governor Schaefer.

On hand for the proceedings were State Senator Clay Mitchell, Sen. Clarence Blount, Capt. Pushkin, and U.S. Cong. Kweisi Mfume. They enjoyed an informal chat, prior to the inauguration ceremonies.

Baltimore police commissioner Bishop Robinson and Dr. Uthman Ray were on hand for the festivities. The smiling lady in the forground is unidentified.

Sarah Snipes and Marguerite Campbell, longtime neighbors of Gov. Schaefer, were on hand to see him sworn in as governor.

Del. Mary Adams, City councilwoman Agnes Welch, and Del. Howard (Pete) Rawlings hold a mini conference while waiting for the inauguration.

Paying rapt attention were Saundra Barrett, Shirley Plummer and Iantha Tucker.

Nathan Carter is caught in a typical pose while leading his chorus.

Bernice Little pauses between sips as she smilingly looks over the proceedings.

Nathan Carter directs members of the School of the Arts ensemble.

Former State Sen. Verda Welcome indicates by her stern visage that this was not a matter to be taken lightly.

State police corporal Townes is rigid in his salute during the playing of the national anthem.

Smiling spectators Samuel Daniels and Carroll Hynson, Jr. view the happenings.

IN MEMORIAM

BRISCOE—In loving memory of my dear husband, JAMES E. BRISCOE, who passed away January 25, 1978:
When one you care for has departed,
And you sit alone and broken hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship, I know
The pain it eases to see you go.
Yet memory softens everything—
The grave its victory—
death its sting.
I, who loved you, sadly miss you;
I, who held you very dear.
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You are with me every day.
Loving Wife, DOLORES

BUTLER—In loving memory of our dear brother, LAWRENCE B. BUTLER, who passed away January 19, 1966:
A light is from our household gone.
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more;
But in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.
Loving Sister, ALMA BUTLER
Brother, LEROY BIAS
NEPHEWS and FAMILY

BUTLER—In loving memory of our dear sister, MARY R. BUTLER, who passed away January 12, 1978:
What would we give her hand to clasp,
her patient face to see.
To hear her voice,
to see her smile,
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife.
And clasp each other's hands once more,
In Heaven, that happy life.
Loving Sister, ALMA BUTLER
Brother, LEROY BIAS
