VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
COPPIN STATE COLLEGE
Effective Date: July 1, 1987 or earlier

Responsibilities: The Vice President for Academic Affairs reports directly to the President and is a member of the Executive Committee. As the Chief Academic Officer, the Vice President is responsible for providing leadership and directing the planning, development, evaluation, and administration of academic programs. The Vice President for Academic Affairs recommends to the President all selections to academic and administrative posts, appointments to the faculty, promotion and grants to tenure. The Vice President should be dedicated to academic excellence as achieved primarily through distinguished teaching with serious attention given to scholarship, student advisement, and service to the larger community.
Qualifications: A distinguished record of leadership as an administrator; a strong academic background including evidence of scholarly productivity and teaching experience; demonstrated ability to articulate academic issues and goals; earned doctorate from an accredited institution of higher learning with at least five years of experience in teaching, administration and supervision on a post-secondary level; and an ability to establish and maintain a positive working relationship with the various college constituencies.
Institutional Setting: Coppin State College, a commuter college, is dedicated to providing high quality undergraduate and graduate education in the arts and sciences and in the pre-professional and professional areas including teacher education and nursing. Within the higher education system of the state of Maryland, Coppin State College has the unique mission of focusing on the problems, needs and aspirations of the people in the center city. Coppin enrolls 1900 undergraduate and 400 graduate students on 35 acres located in West Baltimore. It is a dynamic institution positioned to meet the challenges of the 21st century.
Applications: Application deadline is February 9, 1987. Applications should include résumé and three letters of recommendation. Please send nominations and applications to: Dr. Loretta Richardson, Chair, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Search Committee, Coppin State College, 2500 West North Avenue, Baltimore, MD 21216.
