

shall make a daily report of all traffic convictions and other disposition of cases to the said chief clerk and] The said chief clerk shall make proper report at periodic intervals of all traffic convictions and other disposition of cases to the Department of Motor Vehicles in accordance with such agreed plan, and, together therewith, said chief clerk shall make remittance of all revenues due the State of Maryland from traffic violation fines and costs to the Department of Motor Vehicles. The Department of Finance of Montgomery County shall regularly audit the accounts and records of the chief clerk [and said branch clerks] and shall furnish the Department of Motor Vehicles and the State Comptroller regularly a certificate attesting to the fact that an audit verification of traffic violation fines and costs imposed in the People's Court of Montgomery County has been made, and that all fines and costs due the State of Maryland have been remitted to the Department of Motor Vehicles. [Each of said branch clerks shall have custody of all] All monies paid into the court for any purpose [and] shall be deposited [such monies] promptly in an account in the name of the chief clerk in Montgomery County; upon deposit in said account or accounts, the chief clerk shall have custody of all such monies. [Each branch clerk shall report promptly to the chief clerk all fines, forfeitures and costs and shall report any funds in his custody.] The chief clerk shall prepare, sign and deliver with appropriate remittance to county and State officials such reports of fines, forfeitures and costs as are required of trial magistrates by law. The chief clerk and the deputy chief clerk [and the several branch clerks] shall perform such other duties as shall be properly assigned to them by the judges of the People's Court, and they shall receive such salary as shall be fixed by the County Council of said county in equal monthly installments; the chief clerk before entering upon his duties shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) and the [said branch clerks and] deputy chief clerk before entering upon [their] his duties shall [each] give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00); each of said bonds shall [be for the full four year term of office and] have corporate sureties satisfactory to the [county manager] chief administrative officer, and the premium of said bonds [to] shall be paid by [the County Council of] Montgomery County. The County Council for Montgomery County shall provide such additional clerical help as may be necessary to carry out the administrative work of said court and its branches at salaries to be fixed by said County Council for Montgomery County.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subsection the [clerks of the branches] employees of the People's Court shall perform their duties and maintain their offices where directed by the chief judge.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on July 1, 1970.
