The Living Church

Heavenly play at Hillsdale

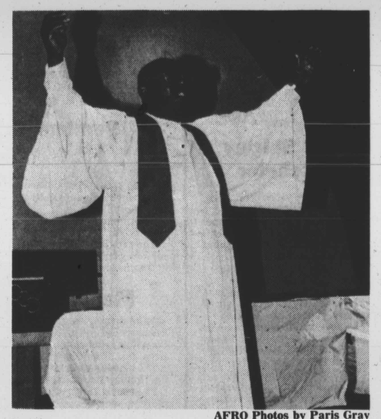
The Hillsdale Chatsworth United Methodist Church recently presented the religious musical "My Lord What A Morning" performed by the Sidney Daniels Courtesy Circle Dinner Theater.

The play is based on an original play titled "The Great Whie Throne" by Louise Anderson, a member of Sharon Baptist Church in New Brunswick, NJ.

"My Lord What A Morning" is a very popular version of the drama which is noted for its rousing songs and thought - provoking dialogue.

The play, through song, attemps to illustrate just how difficult it is for Christians, as well as sinners, to travel the road to heaven because the devil is always tempting them and trying to get them to turn around.

The rendition presented by the Sidney Daniels Courtesy Circle featured the Heavenly Choir composed of Sydney Caulk, Rita Cooper, Helen Mercer and Alice Parker.



AFRO Photos by Paris Gray

Malcolm Turner plays the Lord in the religious musical performed at Hillsdale Chatsworth United Methodist Church.

The "devil," played by Verna Day (left) tries to persuade the wandering daughter, Brenda Bond, from going to heaven.

Soloists were Robert Payne and Arthur Stackhouse.

Malcolm Turner had the awesome responsibility of playing the role of the Lord.

Other cast members included Lagretta Patterson as an angel, Eugene Mundell as St. Peter, Mona Rock as Saint Betty Beam, Vernetta Daniel as Foxy Brown, Wanda Queen was the Rag Lady and Bernice Hardy was Mother.

Other cast members were Melvina Jones as St. Sue Zella, Mary Mundell as Mrs. Van Astor, Jean Griffin as St. Louise Gray, Maggie Watkins as Rev. Mary Everett, Wallace Cann as Sir Anthony Green, Christian Lipscombe as the Swinger and Marion Graham as the Death Angel.

The performers wish to thank everyone who helped make the production a success.

Rev. Jones installed at Madison Presbyterian

The Rev. Curtis Allen Jones will be installed as the new minister of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, 2110 Madison Ave. on Sunday, Feb. 22 at 5 p.m.

Rev. Jones will be the church's fifth minister since 1897. The church was established in 1848 and is the oldest black Presbyterian church in Maryland.

Rev. Jones succeeds the Rev. Reginald Daniels who retired in 1984.

From 1981 to 1987, Madison's new minister pastored the St. Luke Presbyterian Church in Dallas, TX. He is a native of Philadelphia, PA, and from 1972 to 1981 he served in Trenton, Newark and Montclair, NJ in several religious capacities.

Rev. Jones was chaplain of the Trenton State Prison from 1979 to 1981; he has led delegations to Africa to attend the East African Youth Assemblies in Kenya. He is a graduate of Antioch College and has received his master of divinity from the Princeton Theological Seminary.

His theological perspective is "That Christian ministry is a most difficult journey. It is not Christianity which has been tried and found wanting, but rather we who profess to be Christians, have been tried and found deficient in several dimensions.

"We consider life a self - centered privilege, and orient our priorities around principles of self-fulfillment; and only secondarily consider the needs of our neighbors as tantamount to our own.

"I hold firmly that the love for God is the greatest commandment and loving thy neighbor as thy self is the true test of Christian authenticity."

Rev. Curtis Allen Jones

Rev. Jones is married; his wife, Peggy is a registered nurse; they have a son, Cleveland Jones.

A fashion show was part of the Valentine Tea at Pennsylvania Avenue AME Zion Church.

Tea and fashion at A.M.E. Zion
