

(2) The provisions in Section 4(f) with respect to benefit rights based on service for state and non-profit institutions of higher education shall be applicable also to service covered by an election under this section.

(3) The amounts required to be paid in lieu of contributions by any political subdivision under this section shall be billed and payment made as provided in Section 8(d) with respect to similar payments by non-profit organizations.

(4) An election under this section may be terminated by filing with the Executive Director written notice not later than 30 days preceding the last day of the calendar year in which the termination is to be effective. That termination becomes effective as of the first day of the next ensuing calendar year with respect to services performed after that date.

(a) In general.—The Executive Director is hereby authorized to enter into reciprocal arrangements with appropriate and duly authorized agencies of other states or of the federal government, or both, whereby:

(1) Services performed by an individual for a single employing unit for which services are customarily performed in more than one state shall be deemed to be services performed entirely within any one of the states (i) in which any part of [such] that individual's service is performed or (ii) in which [such] that individual has his residence or (iii) in which the employing unit maintains a place of business, provided there is in effect[,] as to [such] those services, an election, approved by the agency charged with the administration of [such] that state's unemployment insurance law pursuant to which all the services performed by [such] that individual for [such] that employing unit are deemed to be performed entirely within [such] that state;

(2) Potential rights to benefits under this article may constitute the basis for payment of benefits by another state or by the Federal government and potential rights to benefits accumulated under the law of another state or of the Federal government may constitute the basis for the payment of benefits by this State. [Such] Those benefits shall be paid under [such] those provisions of this article or under the provisions of the law of [such] that state or of the Federal government or under [such] whatever combination of the provisions of both laws as may be agreed upon as being fair and reasonable to all affected interests. No such arrangement shall be entered into unless it contains provision for reimbursement to the fund for [such] those benefits as are paid on the basis of wages and service subject to the law of another state or of the Federal government, and provision for reimbursement from the fund for [such] those benefits as are paid by another state or by the Federal government on the basis of wages and service subject to this Article;

[(3) Wages, upon the basis of which an individual may become entitled to benefits under an unemployment insurance law of another state or of the Federal government, shall be deemed to be wages for insured work for the purpose of determining his benefits under this article; and wages for insured work, on the basis of which an individual may become entitled to benefits under this article shall
