CHAPTER 47

(Senate Bill 117)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 98A of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Replacement Volume and 1970 Supplement), title "Public Education," subtitle "The Public Schools," to provide that school security guards may intervene in a struggle on school grounds and to provide that they shall be compensated for injury and protected from liability.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 98A of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Replacement Volume and 1970 Supplement), title "Public Education," subtitle "The Public Schools," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and to read as follows:

98A.

(a) Principals, [and] teachers, and school security guards in every public elementary and secondary school in this State may intervene in any fight or physical struggle which takes place in their presence in school buildings or on school grounds, between or among students or any other persons. The degree and force of the intervention shall be as reasonably necessary to restore order and to protect the safety of the combatants and surrounding persons.
