

20-2 of this article. The presidential electors of the candidates for President and Vice-President who receive the highest number of votes shall be declared to be elected as said electors, and shall be deemed so appointed. The said election shall in all respects be conducted as other elections, except as otherwise provided in this article, and the returns thereof made and canvassed as hereinbefore directed.

(a) Elections of United States Senators from Maryland, except in cases of election for the purpose of filling any vacancy or vacancies in said office hereinafter provided for, shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in the year 1964, and on the same day and month in every sixth year thereafter, and also on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November in the year 1968, and on the same day and month in every sixth year thereafter.

(b) Places of voting for said United States Senators at such election shall be at the places of voting for members of the House of Representatives of the United States throughout the State, including all the congressional districts thereof.

(c) In the event of a vacancy in said office of Senator aforesaid, however said vacancy may arise, the Governor of the State shall make a temporary appointment of a Senator who shall serve until the people shall fill such vacancy by nomination and election as in this article provided.

(d) It shall be the duty of the Governor of the State, within ten days after such vacancy shall have been made or become known to him, to issue a proclamation accompanied by a writ of election declaring and providing that at the next ensuing primary election held under the provisions of this article for the nomination of candidates for the House of Representatives, candidates for said unexpired portion of the term of said office of Senator in which such vacancy has occurred, shall be nominated in the manner aforesaid. The election of Senator to fill such unexpired portion of said term shall take place, in the manner aforesaid, at the next ensuing general congressional election.

(e) With respect to all elections of United States Senators both for full terms and to fill vacancies for unexpired portions of terms, every person qualified to vote for [members of the House of Delegates] those persons seeking federal office shall be qualified and entitled to vote for United States Senators.

27-1.

The following persons may vote as an absentee voter under this subtitle:

(a) Any qualified voter who may be unavoidably absent from the [State of Maryland] county or Baltimore City where he is registered to vote for any reason on any election day; and

[(b) Any qualified voter who as a condition of his employment may be required to be absent a distance of greater than seventy-five (75) miles from his place of residence on any election day; and]
