IF YOU ASK ME

By Bettye Moss

Smile orchids

Smile of the week orchids to these good neighbors: Miss Malinda Thompson, whose "have a nice day" is welcome to customers at Arlington Post Office, 3500 Dolfield Ave., where she is the cheerful window clerk.

To Ms. Marlene Anderson, the unusually gracious sales counselor at Best Products in the Woodlawn section where she has been employed two years. And, in the same store on Monday, a pleasant assist from a clerk, Miss Delicio Halliard, a Forest Park June '87 grad at work six months.

To Albert Queen, Jr., Worship Master and members of Prince Hall Enterprise Lodge No. 3, who spread plenty of sunshine on Saturday when they gathered at the Liberty Heights Ave. home of Bill Morton, the lodge's consultant and past master. They were there to cheer Morton who had surgery earlier in the month.

Many know Mr. Morton as the owner of the moving firm which bears his name, and as one who keeps a pleasant manner. So does his wife, Betty, who is being installed as Worthy Matron of Electra Chapter of Eastern Star this week.

More smiles

To Baltimore NAACP volunteers-members of the branch executive committee, who give generously of their time to help others, and with a smile... Ms. Delores Pierre, with the ACT-SO Youth Committee; Ms. Betty Boone, with the Youth Council, and Robert L. Brantley, with the Prison Support Committee.

And to Building Fund chair, Jake Oliver and other committee members sponsoring NAACP Gospel Jamboree 6 p.m. Saturday, June 25, at St. John AME Church, 810 N. Carrollton Ave. Treat in store.

And, to Mrs. Maggie Quille, the energetic founder and president of Druid Heights Neighborhood Association. She inspires many with her lovely disposition and devotion to community and her church, (Pennsylvania Ave. AME Zion).

Mailbag: Jerome Gaskins of Harford Rd., writes: "Take it from me you do feel good when a person in a public place has a smile and a nice manner. I like the way the young woman who answers the phone in the classified department at the AFRO. My orchids to her."

Editor's note: Since there is more than one young classified phone lady, a big nod to all of them since our reader failed to give the name.

Did someone's smile make your day? Let Smile know. Write If You Ask Me, Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN, P.O. Box 1857, Baltimore, MD, 21203, and smile, please.

In the top 100

The June 1988 issue of Black Enterprise Magazine features its sixteenth annual list of outstanding black businesses in the U.S.

On the cover, Baltimore-born Attorney Reginald F. Lewis, a graduate of Dunbar High School here.

He is featured because he is chairman and chief executive officer of TLC Beatrice International Holdings, Inc., a food distribution conglomerate whose sales surpassed the $1 billion mark, reaching what the magazine calls "a staggering $1.8 billion in gross sales for the year 1987 ... making it the fastest growing among the nation's largest black companies..."

This year, Black Enterprise changes its categories and separates autos, businesses and financial institutions.

Lewis's Beatrice ranks no. 1 on the list of 100 industrial and service companies.

* * *

No. 1 Marylander in this category is Maxima Corp. of Rockville, systems engineering firm with $56,086 million sales, headed by Joshua I. Smith, ranked no. 9.

Leading Baltimore city firm is Community Foods, Inc., ranked no. 16, with sales of $37 million, Oscar A. Smith, Jr., CEO.

Other Baltimore city firms listed: No. 21, G and M Oil Co., $30 million, 126, Rudolph C. Gustus, CEO; no. 27, Parks Sausage, $25 million, 210, Raymond V. Haysbert, CEO; no. 80. Broadway-Payne, McDonald's fast food, $5 million, Osborne A. Payne, CEO.

* * *

In the list of 109 top auto dealers, Baltimore city Inner Harbor Ford is no. 14, with sales of $27 million, 493, John A. Minor, CEO.

No. 36 is Elkridge, Md.'s All-Star Chevrolet, Bob Davis, CEO, $20 million, 459;

No. 1 in this category is Shack-Woods Associates, a Ford dealer in Long Beach, Calif., whose 1987 sales were $89 million.

Of the 32 savings and loans, Baltimore City's Advance Federal Savings and Loan stands no. 11, with assets of $33,994, W.O. Bryson, Jr., CEO.

No. 30 is Ideal Federal Savings Banks, $6,994, E. Gaines Lansey, CEO. No. 1 in this category, D.C.'s Independence, $216,212, W.B. Fitzgerald, CEO.

Baltimore's Harbor Bank of Maryland no. 18 in list of 36 banks, with assets of $32 million, 293, Joseph Haskins, Jr., CEO.

No. 1 in this category, Seaway National of Chicago, with assets of $145,262, Walter E. Grady, CEO.

Tops of 737

Every graduation season, there is much publicity and many photos of grads, but somehow some who works hardest and win top honors get lost in the crowd.

This column has been looking for the "top ones" to feature. At Morgan State University no. 1 with highest honors of the 737 grads, was Annette Elaine Bell.

She was graduated summa cum laude — with highest honors — meaning her grade point average was between 3.8 and 4. (She completed her studies in 3 1/2 years).

During her Morgan years, she was able to stay above the 3.8 and actively participate in cheerleading and other campus activities.

She is described as "one who distinguished herself as a scholar and a leader." Notice was taken of her selection as Miss Sophomore 1985-86; Miss Delta Sigma Theata Sorority, 1987; co-captain of cheerleaders, 1986-88; senior advisor to Phi Eta Sigma Honor Society.

Plus, she was a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and the Promethean Kappa Tau Honor Societies.

Annette plans to attend law school, hopes to be a corporate attorney. She is the youngest of two children. Mom, Mrs. Frances Bell, is a secretary in a federal agency. Dad, James Bell, manager of a digital computer firm in Landover. Sister, Stephanie, is accountant with MCI.

Remembering

St. Matthew Catholic Church at 5401 Loch Raven Blvd., is spacious, beautiful, serene. It was in this sanctuary a Friday ago that relatives and friends gathered for final rites for Dr. Regina Goff Henry.

She was the beloved Morgan and U. of Md. professor, State Department consultant, worker and good neighbor.

Father Wayne G. Funk presided at the mass, which featured singing of Amazing Grace and How Great Thou Art. Former Morgan U. president, Dr. Thomas Fraser, Morgan U. former profs — among them Dr. Benjamin Quarles, Dr. G. James Fleming, Bishop Edward G. Carroll — were among the honorary pallbearers who made an impressive picture.

Dr. Richard I. McKinney gave an impressive tribute. Excerpt: "Those of us who knew Regina think of her in certain descriptive terms ... integrity, radiance, character, decency, honesty, principle, high esteem, dedication, intellect, wisdom, charm, ideals, fidelity, excellence, endurance, resolution, broad-minded, sensitivity, understanding, patience ... certainly Regina embodied all of these and many more..."

Kin here: brother and sister-in-law, Ward Young and Emile Goff of St. Louis;

Also here, Mrs. Alice Moore, the W. Palm Beach, Fla., educator and family friend.

Nice gesture: Dr. Henry designated Dr. Iva Jones, longtime friend and Morgan Park neighbor to arrange her last rites. She did a beautiful job with assistance of Philomathian club members, Dr. Ruth Quarles and Dr. Thelma Bando.

Alpha Kappa Alpha sorores conducted special services on Thursday evening at Nutter's.

Thinking-of-you

Thinking of you cards, please, to the family of Thomas A. Rice, Sr. 65. He was the longtime Westinghouse employee who died June 15.

Funeral services were Monday, June 20, at Friendship Baptist Church. Family tribute recalled Mr. Rice was proud of the fact that he was never late during the entire 25 years he was employed at Westinghouse, and that he was "a friend to many co-workers." He retired in 1986.

Survivors: His wife of 48 years, the former Willie Mae Whidby; his mother, Mrs. Jannie Mayes, D.C., and nine children, Luther, Carl. James, Melvin, Thomas, Jr., Donald, Kenneth, Vernay and Sandra. Seventeen grandchildren and six great grandchildren also survive. (The seven sons served as pallbearers).

* * *

And to the family of Mrs. Ellen McDaniel Snead, 84, who was eulogized Monday at Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church, where she was a member of the Emergency Club. Her husband, Joseph C. Snead, died in 1963.

Survivors: Sisters, Mrs. Annie M. Johnson and Mrs. Betty M. Harper, and six grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

* * *

And remember the large family of Mrs. Alease Hairston Winkey, 69, eulogized on June 18 at Brown Memorial Baptist Church.

Survivors: Seven sons, Thomas, Jr., Purcell, George, Travis, Herman, Timothy and Darnell Winkey; seven daughters, Nancy Dessesaurs, Viola Myers, Mildred Scales, Betty McGill, Anna Mae Watts, Brenda Harris, ND Marion Thomas.

Two brothers, Odell and Thomas Hairston; a sister, Mrs. Jean H. Duggin and 28 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren, also survive.

OBITUARIES

Rose Tyson Kinney

Rose Tyson Kinney, retired school administrator and civic worker, died Friday, June 17, in Sinai Hospital after a brief illness. Miss Kinney was 78 years old.

Memorial Services for Miss Kinney will be held at 4 p.m. Friday at St. James Episcopal Church, Lafayette and Arlington Avenues on Lafayette Square.

Miss Kinney was born in Philadelphia, Pa. and for many years resided with the Tyson family of Philadelphia and Cape May, N.J.

She was a graduate of Morgan State University, New York University and Johns Hopkins University.

Additionally she has studied at the Universities of Pennsylvania, Maine, and Maryland, Towson State University, Temple University, and the University of Hawaii

Miss Kinney enjoyed a long and illustrious career of 46 years in the Baltimore City Public School System.

She served the children of Baltimore as an elementary school teacher, junior high school social studies teacher and department head, senior high school history teacher and department head.

As an administrator she served as Vice Principal of Eastern High School, Specialist in the Office of Secondary Supervisors in the Division of Social Studies, and she retired in 1981 as Regional Specialist in Planning.

Miss Kinney traveled extensively in Europe, Africa, The Caribbean and in Asia where she served as guest lecturer.

Miss Kinney loved people and devoted her time and resources to numerous civic, social, and educational organizations at the local, national and international levels. She held memberships in the East-West international center in Hawaii where she studied on a Fellowship, International House, and the U.S. China Friendship Association.

She was a member of Phi Delta Kappa and Kappa Delta Pi, both national honor societies as well as The American Association of University Women (AAUW).

She held life memberships in the NAACP and the National Association of Negro and Professional Women. She especially enjoyed her memberships in Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority and The Du Bois Circle.

Even after her retirement she pursued her intellectual interests as a member of the Evergreen Society of the Johns Hopkins University. For many years she served on the Board of Directors of the Keswick Home for Incurables and on the Peale Museum (City Life Museums) Committee for Black History Exhibits. She was also a member of numerous educational and professional groups and generously supported several charitable organizations.

During the years following her retirement she resided with her godchild and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo McClarry in Randallstown and enjoyed visits to friends in Hawaii and to Philadelphia and Cape May, N.J.

Miss Kinney is survived by the devoted family of her godchild, Romeo and Evelyn McClarry, Lori McClarry and Allison all of Randallstown, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Mark McClarry, El Paso, Texas and many loving friends.

IN MEMORIAM

EASLEY — In memory of our dear loved one, JUANEZ EASLEY, who passed away June 24, 1987:

Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, and shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes...
For all of us you did your best
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
