

and just claim to any part of such funds, the Chief Judge may by proper order require that repayment shall be made by the Treasurer to such claimant as specified in such order. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Supreme Bench to issue a certificate under the official seal of the court embodying the terms and provisions of such order and to transmit the same to the Treasurer, which certificate shall constitute the latter's authority for making such repayment. After the lapse of such three-year period all such funds remaining in the custody of the Treasurer shall be credited to the general funds of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

22-87.

【All information and data obtained in the discharge of official duty by any probation worker or appointee of the Supreme Bench serving in the Probation Department, from whatsoever source the same shall be obtained shall be privileged information and shall not be receivable as evidence in a tribunal or court, whether of original, appellate, inferior or superior jurisdiction, and shall not be disclosed directly or indirectly outside the membership of the Probation Department in the discharge of his official duties to any one other than to a member or members of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, unless and until otherwise ordered by the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City or by any member thereof.】

22-88.

【The Supreme Bench of Baltimore City may appoint a Chief Probation Officer, such supervisory and administrative assistants and as many probation workers, clerical assistants and other employees to carry out the provisions of this sub-heading as it may deem proper; and from time to time, and without assigning any reason therefor, may revoke the appointment of any one or more of such probation officers, administrative assistants and probation workers, clerical assistants or other employees so assigned to work in the Probation Department, as well as any and all of such persons heretofore so appointed or so assigned. Such persons may be selected by examination, held by, or under the authority or direction or consent of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City.】

22-89.

【The Supreme Bench of Baltimore City shall fix the salaries of each probation worker and of each of such clerical assistants and other employees; the moneys necessary therefor, as well as all moneys necessary to carry out the provisions of this sub-heading, shall be paid by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore and shall be included in the next annual budget of the Board of Estimates in the Ordinance of Estimates, and shall be paid in the same manner as the salaries of other appointees of said Supreme Bench are paid. Moneys for said salaries and expenses shall be paid on proper statements or vouchers certified to or approved by the Supreme Bench or by any member thereof, and without the necessity of obtaining the consent of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore thereto; provided, however, that the total of such yearly salaries and expenses of the said Probation Department shall not exceed the sum of forty thousand dollars, unless the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall assent to any sum in excess of said sum of forty thousand dollars annually.】