The Commission is authorized to make such reasonable rules and regulations as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this article and any other law relating to the Commission.

14.

(a) In case of failure to reach an agreement for the elimination of the acts of discrimination and upon the entry of findings to that effect, the entire file including the complaint and any and all findings made shall be certified to. The chairman shall cause a written notice to be issued and served in the name of the Commission together with a copy of the complaint requiring the respondent to answer the charges of the complaint at a public hearing before the Commission at such time and place as may be certified in the notice.

The chairman shall thereupon appoint a hearing tribunal of [five] three persons who shall be members of the Commission to hear such complaint, and said hearing shall be held in the county where the alleged act of discrimination took place. The chairman may appoint a Hearing Master from a list of six lawyers who have been proposed by the Commission and approved by the Governor. The Hearing Master shall preside at the hearing and shall act as legal advisor to the hearing tribunal, but shall not have a vote in its decisions. A transcript of all testimony at the hearing shall be made. The case in support of the complaint shall be presented at the hearing by the general counsel of the Commission and no commissioner who previously made or participated in the investigation or caused the complaint to be filed shall participate in the hearing [except as a witness, nor shall he participate in the deliberations of the tribunal in such case] as a member of the tribunal or in the review of a decision of a hearing tribunal pursuant to subsection (g) of this section.

(g) If a decision of a hearing tribunal is not unanimous, the aggrieved party may petition within ten days to the remaining members of the Commission for a review of the decision. Such review by the Commission shall be limited to a review of the entire record of proceedings before the hearing tribunal; provided, however, the Commission may order further argument if necessary in making such a review. The Commission, after making such a review, shall affirm, reverse or modify the decision of the hearing tribunal and an appropriate order shall be filed in accordance with this action.

[a) If any respondent refuses to comply with an order of the Commission made within the scope of any of these subtitles, the Commission may, represented by its general counsel, institute litigation in the appropriate equity court of the county or in Baltimore City where the alleged discrimination took place to enforce compliance with any of the provisions of this article.

The court, in hearing said case shall be governed by the judicial review standards as set forth in the Administrative Procedures Act, Sections 255-256 of Article 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, except that additional evidence if otherwise admissible under the law of evidence, may be presented to the court without the necessity of an application or without the necessity of showing reasons for the failure to present it at the hearing before the Commission.
