Rules and Regulations

PURPOSE

The purpose of this campaign is to help create a clean living environment throughout the summer.

EXPLANATION

A block is a row of houses between two cross streets. For the purpose of this campaign, a block includes the houses on both sides of the street.

There must be three or more houses before there is a block.

A clean block is one which steps and sidewalks are washed once a day and the streets are kept free from trash.

Windows should be kept clean and curtains hung neatly.

Garbage and trash cans should be removed as soon as they are emptied.

Porches and window-boxes should have flowers or plants.

No one should sit at the front window or on the front steps, unless his clothing is neat and clean.

A beautiful block must have flowers in it and must be clean, in the back and front.

Do not whitewash trees or curbs; only the backyards and fences may be whitewashed.

JUDGES

Judges, appointed by the director, will choose the winning blocks in the following ways:

1. The appearance of the block at the time of inspection.
2. How the block has improved since the beginning of the campaign.
3. The beauty of the flowers.

Judges may make as many inspections as they see fit. The director's decision will be final in all cases.

BLOCK ORGANIZATION

The captain must get as many members of the block as possible to sign up and send their names immediately to the AFRO - AMERICAN Newspapers.

He or she must call a meeting of all adults and children and elect a president who will act as an advisor.

Each block must elect a secretary, who will record what is done at each meeting and send written reports to the AFRO.

Each block must elect a block inspector, who will see that no trash accumulates anywhere in the block.

Each block must elect a marshall, who will call out the cleanup brigade at a definite time each day.

MEETINGS

The captain or advisor must attend the weekly meetings. You must be sure to sign the attendance sheet.

At least three other members from the block should attend weekly meetings.

A head start with transplants

By Pamela B. King
Extension Agent
Charles County

In Maryland, many vegetables and flowers should be planted as transplants-small plants started early indoors. They will give you a four to eight week head start on the season which can be important if you are beginning late. Good quality transplants are available to be purchased, but as always, the buyer should beware. So here are some guidelines for buying transplants:

* Make sure that the type of plant and variety are clearly marked. Few things are worse than planting what you thought were sweet peppers, only to discover six weeks into the season when the fruit develops that they are hot.

* Look for resistant varieties. Tomatoes marked "VF" are resistant to Verticillium and Fusarium wilts and will usually survive long enough to produce a crop even if those devastating fungal diseases are present in the soil.

* Look for varieties with the growth habit that you need. Marigolds that only grow one foot high may be more suitable for a window box than varieties that grow to three feet.

* Look for varieties with the color, fruit size or other characteristics that you want. Petunias come in a rainbow of colors and tomatoes range from cherry to beefsteak types.

* Purchase transplants from a reputable dealer who can maintain the plants in good condition. Plants kept in poorly lit stores can lose quality rapidly.

* Plants should be five to six inches tall. Larger plants often suffer severe transplant shock when planted.

* Plants should be about six to eight weeks old. Cucumbers and squash should be no more than three weeks old, with only two true leaves. Older plants may be severely shocked when their roots are disturbed by transplanting.

* Transplants should be a healthy green color. Too light or too dark can indicate problems.

* Stems should be sturdy.

* Check under leaves for signs of insects or disease. If anything looks unusual, do not buy the plants. Whitefly, a serious summer garden pest, does not overwinter out of doors and is often brought into the garden on transplants from the greenhouse.

After carefully purchasing transplants, it is important to plant them properly. Try to plant late in the afternoon on a calm, overcast day.

Prepare the soil properly, then dig a hole slightly bigger than the transplant container. Tip the transplant out of the container carefully or tear the top edge and bottom from peat pots. Place the transplant in the hole a little deeper than it was in the container. (Only tomatoes should be planted very deeply- up to their first leaves.) Fill in the soil around the roots and firm gently. Water with at least one cup of starter solution (half strength fertilizer dissolved in water) to moisten and settle the soil around the roots. Put a little soil over the wet area to hold in moisture.

Transplants can give you an instant garden, but should be carefully purchased and planted. For more gardening information call your local University of Maryland Cooperative Extension Service office, whose programs are open to all citizens without regard to race, color, sex, handicap, religion, age, or national origin.

Smile orchids

Pleasant voices and engaging smiles are the marks of these good neighbors who get our smile orchids this week:

Mrs. Ruth Newborn, the Librarian at police department headquarters in downtown Baltimore.

Miss Henri Daniels, administrator in the Office of Correctional Education Administration with the State Department of Education (the department which staffs schools in prisons.).

Mrs. Peggy Brandon Brown, the Montebello assistant principal, and her daughter, Donnice, the Towson U. student, and son, Terry, the underwriter. They made an attractive picture when we observed them on Sunday at Sharon Baptist Church, see below)

And, more orchids to Osborne Payne, the chief exec of Broadway-Payne, the McDonald franchiser who has created a mini park beauty spot at the East Baltimore and Broadway location.

More smiles

And to Sonny Alston, the cheerful deck hand on the Bay Lady, the Baltimore harbor cruise ship which is attracting large lunchtime crowds this balmy season.

Equally pleasant is Stephen A. Szekeley, director of Harbor Cruises whom we watched welcome members of We Wives Club and guests who went a-cruising on Tuesday morning.

More orchids to 12-year-old Brian paul Franklin. He won first prize in the recent junior high category at the city science, fair, represented Roland Park Middle School.

Proud parents are the Dwight Franklins (Jeanne Murray). Mom has good news, too. She's been accepted at U. of Md. Law School this semester.

Also to Mrs. Betsy Mills, and Mrs. Tina Lemon, "The work they do to help muscular dystrophy patients is so inspiring and they are typical of a number of extraordinary people who aid and comfort muscular dystrophy patients." This is the word from reader, Mrs. Cecelia Bass.

Mrs. Mills is the lady responsible for training staff people-teachers, but driver etc. at the adult day care center on Sulphur Spring Rd., in Arbutus and at 19 other centers.

Mrs. Lemon trains respite workers at the Pikesville center. "They exhibit kindness and caring, says Mrs. Bass, of these employees of the Cerebral Palsy Association of Central Maryland.

Sharon men

Sunday marked the 61st annual men's day at Sharon Baptist Church.

Some 50 visitors joined the 300 plus members for the joyful service in the air conditioned sanctuary.

Most members of the male chorus, as well as program participants wore white suits, with corsages.

Guest speaker, civil rights leader, Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy of Atlanta said of them, "you look so pretty and handsome."

And, they were handsome in deed. Instead of crediting themselves for the beauty of the service and the honors offered them, the church pastor, Rev. Alfred C. D. Vaughn and men's day leaders turned the tables and thanked co-workers and their wives for support.

The day's co-chair, Dr. Darrell M. Gray and Nathaniel W. Redd, presented certificates and gifts, to co-workers and church leaders, their wives, and to Dr. Abernathy, and Mayor Kurt Schmoke.

Abernathy

Rev. Abernathy is pastor of Atlanta's West Hunter St. Baptist Church. He is known as the man who marched arm-in-arm with Martin L. King, Jr., in the struggle for civil rights. ("Martin Luther King and I lived a dangerous life . .")

Of his visit to Sharon he said, "I am happy to be here at Sharon . . I feel at home. One of my dearest friends is your pastor. Rev. Vaughn, who is doing an outstanding job."

Excerpts of what he said: —

Help others: — If you can drive a BMW, live in Columbia, send your children to Morgan or University of Maryland, live in a house with a bath and a half, you get the attitude that you're better than the homeless and those locked in poverty. But, if you've gotten across the railroad tracks, you ought to come back and help your sisters and brothers across."

On Jesse Jackson: — "Our nation should nominate Jesse Jackson as vice president. We ought to have enough strength and power to do this. Our children need role models and we need to do something for ourselves. We need to know, yes, we can become President of the United States . . "

On Reagan; — Ronald Reagan does not own the U.S. . . does not own the world God does. President Reagan has turned back the clock of history.

On men lovers: — "Too many men out their are loving other men . . My wife is a woman . . so was my mother . . . so is my daughter. I love women . . .

Schmoke

Mayor Schmoke welcomed Dr. Abernathy and congratulated Sharon men. He urged the congregation to support programs to improve nursing homes and care for "the oldest among us."

Music was by the Men's Day chorus and the Inspirational choir. Outstanding were renditions of "It Is Well With My Soul," and "The Lord Came Down."

Prayers and announcements and presentations were by Trustee Richard Malone. Deacon Joseph Readdy, Martin Cruise, Sr., Pasley Graham, Trustee Nathaniel DeVoe, Terry Brown, Corrogan Vaughn, Thomas Taylor, Quentin Redd, Hugh Page, Orange Perry.

Other committee chairs: Deacons Abel Whitaker, Asberry Butler, William Jessup, Jr., Lorenzo Foy, and Hubert Spellman, Trustee Steven Morrisey, and Allen Meacham, Ronald Franklin, Willie Phillips and Dr. Robert D. Everett,

Cuff notes: Sharon beauty spots — the two-story long stained glass windows — four each side of sanctuary.

In overflow crowd seated in balcony, Dr. Levi Watkins, the Hopkins hospital heart surgeon. Dr. Abernathy said of him: "More than any other person is responsible for ny being alive today. Hopkins is the greatest institution in the world, and he's the greatest cardiovascular surgeon and a civil and human rights leader.

Steadfast Spirit

By: Joyce Dixon

A Special Kind of Fellowship

A month ago, a friend invited me to attend Fellowship Baptist Church of Yale Heights, 620 S. Beechfield Ave. to hear something special.

Something special indeed! Yes — Rev. Tyrone B. Griffin, the pastor of the church, is an uplifting man of God's Word who approaches the congregation in a no-nonsensical manner. Rev. Griffin is a man large in stature, yet when wielding the mighty power of God's most Holy and Precious Word, God's Omnipresence becomes the focal point of significance. Praise God!

The message "Back to the Basics" which was given by Rev. Griffin through the gift of the Holy Spirit, undoubtedly showed me and many others that God has a mighty work and a mighty message for this man to deliver to His children. He tells us in His word to: "Go ye therefore, nd teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen." (Matthew 28:19-20) [KJV]

I can hear Rev. Griffin's voice now as he said, "The Word hasn't changed, man has changed! God sent love first, He didn't make it second. He gave His life for me. Remember: love is more than having a sex partner!!"

Refer to I John 3:4-8: "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is He that is in you, than He that is in the world. They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us.

Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love." Halleluia!

Not only was God's message delivered through a special sermon, but there was a small choir (approximately 8 to 10 members) who had a sound that was astounding! Each of the singers had strong voices that rang out in harmonic clarity, and complemented one another.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. Jerome Chester, indeed praised the Lord with his music ministry. Melodic voices literally lived the directive of Psalm 149: "Praise ye the Lord. Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise in the congregation of Saints." (Verse 1) [KJV]

This small group sang the Disciples Prayer in an exciting way. They serenaded Our Father with silky tunes they weaved with the gifts He bestowed upon them. Joy was expressed in their music for our Wonderful God beautifully and in such an uplifting way.

There's no doubt in my mind that He was present for the glorious praise and honor this small group of people gave us they made ". . . joyful noise unto the Lord . . . " and came "before His presence with singing."

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to: Patrick Austin, Lloyd Brown, Jerome Chester, Mary Chester, Rev. William Dance, Jean Griffin, William Holms, JoAnn Hughes, Arlene Isabel, Michelle Isabel, R. Isabel, JoAnn Lee and the Rev. Tyrone B. Griffin.
