AFRAM—Afro-American Exposition

Well, what can I really say that the fun, entertaining festival is rare and willing to show off again. Folks, I am talking about our AFRAM, your AFRAM.

The Urban Services Agency's AFRAM Expo '88. We are going strong once again. This will make our 12th Annual Cultural Arts Expo.

We are fast approaching the time and the Annual AFRAM dates. Please remember these dates. AFRAM will take place the weekend of August 5, 6 and 7.

It will be held at the Festival Hall and on the adjoining parking lot.

There will be lots of food, good down to earth entertainment and plenty of amusements and fun for our children and youth and adults of all ages.

This year's AFRAM Theme is: AFRAM Salutes Blacks in Medicine.

The AFRAM Luncheon will be the kick-off for the festival. The Luncheon will be held on Thursday, August 4, 1988, 12:00 Noon (Cocktails - 11:30 a.m.). It will be held at the Sheraton Harbor Hotel.

The VIP Guest Speaker for the AFRAM luncheon will be Dr. Benjamin S. Carson, Director, Pediatric Neuro-Surgery at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

You still have time so sorta hurry and get your ticket. You can do this by just calling 396-7013. Don't let this kick-off luncheon leave you in backfield.

Friday evening, August 5, 1988, the highlighted AFRAM Parade will do it again at 7:00 p.m. sharp. The Urban Services Agency will again sponsor a parade in conjunction with our very own AFRAM 1988.

Participating groups in the parade are as follows: Golden Angels Westsiders, V-103 Van Star Strutters, Marching Revels';

Murphy Homes, Fire Department, Edmondson Village Blue Devils, Conquestadors Caballeros, O'Donnel Heights;

Claremont Homes, Baltimore Best Float.

Note to bear in mind - the parade route - forming at Dolphin Street and Madison Avenue, South on Madison Avenue, then left on to Preston Street to Howard Street headed straight on to Festival Hall.

Now for our athletic outdoor partners, there will be AFRAM Expo '88 - 10K, 7-Up Fitness Run, $2,000 cash awards for your unique fitness run.

You have been in tip top shape all winter long and now it is time to enter into the 10-K Fitness Run and Show-Off.

The AFRAM Committee shared a few top entertainers for eye openers: Micki Howard, Dianne Reeves, Stacy Lattisaw, and LeVert. Just to name a few, but there are more.

The Urban Services Agency's AFRAM Salutes much more. I am talking about excellence in black culture standards, a show on top of shows and a festival of artistry and leadership on top of all outdoor entertainment, you name it we have it.

LOVE YA!!!!!

Swinging action in Atlanta

WORD....

Donkey Doins' In Dixie.

Boasts of party unity among Delegates at last week's Democratic Convention paled in comparison to tall tales and goings-on beneath the podium, on the floor.

Angry party honchos — including Monday night's spokesmistress Texas state treasurer Ann Richards — got a rude awakening the following evening when Atlanta fire marshalls and security guards barred them from entering the Omni Hotel arena to hear Jesse Jackson's magnificent speech.

Arriving on "CP Time," scores of legislators and movers and shakers were told there was no room in the inn by the force of young, black security guards.

"We got a real thrill out of being able to turn them away," one member of the team said. "Imagine being able to do that."

Really, I can't. It boggles the mind.

WORD....

Alice In Wonderland

At shindigs elsewhere, Alice Bond, estranged wife of civil rights leader Julian Bond, gave a vote of no confidence to America's media battalion.

Ms. Alice had no trouble, however, making the rounds among black luminaries — with her famous husband noticeably absent from her side — and pooh-poohed all the talk surrounding that nasty business last year involving the attack with a shoe by Mr. Bond's alleged lover, who is now serving time for her activities as a cocaine dealer.

Declaring "the press slandered and miscontrued what I said," an annoyed Mrs. Bond took issue with The Atlanta Constitution for revealing her husband's alleged cocaine habit.

She added that while she fed the information about the addiction to reporters there, the paper later failed to print her retraction which vindicated Mr. Bond.

"He's innocent," she said, of the alleged drug usage, but made no reply when asked about Mr. Bond's reported love relationship with the Cuban cutie serving time in the big house.

The tryst, District insiders said, was not his first. An earlier relationship with a news reporter in this city lasted nearly three years...

WORD....

The queen was not amused, angry Jackson supporters said of Coretta Scott King, who appeared miffed at the attention the former presidential candidate garnered at last week's doings...

On at least one occasion, televison cameras spotted Diva King applying makeup as Jesse and his family were called to the podium.

This rather flagrant and outward display of her disdain is fueled by jealously, said Atlantians in the know. They also appealed to Mrs. King to end her professional widowhood status.

"She needs to get a real job," one former employee of the King Center there said....

WORD....

After 27 years of marriage, Julian Bond filed for divorce from the woman who last year prompted an investigation of him by saying he was a serious cocaine abuser, Bond, 48, a leader in the civil rights and anti-war movements, filed a four-page document last week in Atlanta saying his marriage to Alice Bond, 44, was irretrievably broken and that they had been separated since September, 1986.

Bond asked the court to divide the couple's property equally between them and listed their assets as a home and a 1984 Peugot in possession of his wife. Bond listed his 1987 income as $99,000 with approximately $800 in savings and $1,000 in a checking account.

WORD....

Oh, Oh, O_____.

An acclaimed talk show hostess reportedly turned down an offer to become a soror from Delta Sigma Theta's hierarchy during their 39th annual convention in San Francisco.

Wonder who it could be?

WORD....

Dressy Donkey Digs

Vying for best dressed honors with little or no competition at the five-day tete-a-tete was chairperson of the Democratic National Committee's Black Caucus, C. Delores Tucker.

The former Secretary of State to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and AFRO Advisory Board member was a knockout in outfits that were changed at least twice a day.

Moving right along....
