OLYMPIC COACH — Maryland Eastern Shore track and field coach Neville Hodge has been tapped to prepare the Virgin Islands Olympic team for the Seoul Olympics. Hodge is a native of St. Thomas.

New coach, new mood bear '88 Bears' hopes

Morgan State's dream of football revitalization begins Saturday at Richmond against traditional rival Virginia Union.

With new coach Ed Wyche proclaiming that his statements are not meant to reflect on any of his predecessors, is confident that his own innovations and a new attitude will go a long way toward the hoped-for revival.

Looking at the past record of only one winning season (1979) since 1976 under seven different coaches, Wyche wants to test a new approach.

"We will 'wishbone,' in the early games," he says, "because I'm afraid there's been a little too much sameness here.

"That doesn't mean we will change later. I feel comfortable with the style and our kids have adjusted well and quickly."

Wyche comes to Morgan after stints as head coach at Howard, Hampton and Delaware State.

Birds top A's on alleys to net $740 for charity

Fair Lanes contributed $740 to the Maryland Cystic Fibrosis Foundation as a result of a special bowling match which preceded the Baltimore Orioles-Oakland A's game on Tuesday, August 16, at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.

Two Orioles players and two A's players each rolled one frame of duckpins and tenpins on a specially designed carpeted lane. The match took place by the Orioles dugout.

For the total pinfall of the competition, Fair Lanes contributed $10 per pin to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

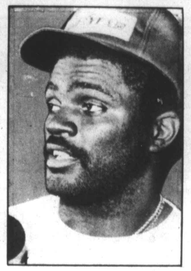
The Birds were represented by outfielders Larry Sheets and Brady Anderson, while pitchers Eric Plunk and Greg Cadaret rolled for the A's. The highlight of the match was when Brady Anderson rolled a strike on his first frame with the tenpin bowling, giving the fans plenty to cheer about.

The final score had the Orioles topping the A's, 42-32, with the 74 pins — thus resulting in a $740 Fair Lanes contribution.



HIS REAL FEAR — New York Giants linebacker Lawrence Taylor says, it is not what happens at the end of his NFL suspension for drug abuse. "It is what happens to me the rest of my life (as an addict)."

As Vicky goes

When Vicky Bullett of the University of Maryland was officially named a member of the U.S. Olympic women's basketball team, the Corning Glass Company set up a fund that will enable her father, brother and sister to make the trip to Seoul, South Korea, with her.

Vicky's father is a longtime employee of Corning in their Martinsburg, W. Va. hometown.
