Celebration to honor Rev. Father Bragg

Bishop Orris G. Walker, Jr.

The George F. Bragg Church School Fund of the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland has announced that a benefit dinner will be held on Monday, December 5, at The Palladium, 2800 Liberty Heights Ave.

The dinner will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the ordination of Father George A. Bragg, the first black to be ordained as a priest in the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland.

Proceeds from the dinner will be used to enhance the George F. Bragg Church School Fund, a scholarship provider for deserving minority youth who need assistance to pursue education beyond high school.

The dinner speaker will be The Right Reverend Orris G. Walker, Jr., Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Long Island, NY.

A native Baltimorean, Bishop Walker is the son of the late Dr. Orris Walker, who practiced dentistry in East Baltimore for many years prior to his death in 1968.

His mother is Mrs. Lewellyn H. Walker, a retired Baltimore City Public School teacher who still resides in East Baltimore.

Bishop Walker is a graduate of Baltimore City College, the University of Maryland, and the General Theological Seminary of the Episcopal Church in New York City.

In 1980, he received the Doctor of Ministry degree from Drew University, and in 1985, a Master of Arts degree from the University of Windsor, Windsor, Ontario.

In 1968, Bishop Walker was ordained as a deacon by the late Rt. Rev. Harry Lee Doll, retired Bishop of the Diocese of Maryland.

He has served as Director of Programs and Education at St. Mark's Ecumenical Church in Kansas City, Missouri, associate rector, and then rector of the merged St. Matthew's and St. Joseph's churches in Detroit, Mich.

In April, 1988, Bishop Walker was consecrated as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Long Island.

While in Michigan, Bishop Walker served the Diocese as a member of the Executive Council, the Trustees, the Urban Affairs Committee, and Dean of Convocation.

He represented the Diocese at the Provincial Synod for ten years, serving as chair of the Urban Taks Force and a member of the Court of Review.

He was elected five times to serve as a deputy to General Convention.

At Convention, Bishop Walker chaired the Committee on Canons and was a member to the Council of Advice.

He also served as chair of the Episcopal Commission on Black Ministries and the Standing Commission on Black Ministries and the Standing Commission on Constitution and Canons. In 1982, he was elected a Trustee of the General Theological Seminary.
