The Public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Lucie Lula Moore

Funeral Services for Lucie Lula Moore were held on Thursday, December 8,1988 at the Pennsylvania Avenue A.M.E. Zion Church, 1128 Pennsylvania Avenue. Reverend Marshall H. Strickland officiated the services. Pastor Almeters Diggs led the audience in prayer. Choir selections were given by the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church and the Israelite Ensemble.

Mrs. Lucie Moore was born 95 years ago in Chester County South Carolina. While there she was a faithfull member of the St. Paul A.M.E. Zion Church in Winnsboro, South Carolina. She accepted the invitation to Christian Discipleship in 1911, and was very active in her church, under the leadership of Rev. W.M. Jackson.

On January 4, 1920, Lula Dixon was united in holy matrimony to the late Fleming Moore. from this union four children were born: Emma (deceased), James, Lucille and Isabelle. After moving to Baltimore she joined the Ebenezer A.M.E. Church. She was also a member of the Sharon household of Ruth No. 5665 G.U.O. of O.F.

In 1931 she and her children joined the Pennsylvania Ave. A.M.E. Church. She was appointed to Stewardess Board Number 3, by the late Rev. George M. Edwards, when the church was first organized. She served as the Chaplain of this board, untill her illness in early October.

She leaves to cherish her memory, three devoted children James Moore, Lucille Draper and Isabelle Page, all of Baltimore; twenty-one grandchildren; thirty-four great grandchildren; one daughter-in-law; two sons-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Henry Frazier, Sr.

A Memorial service for the late Henry Frazier will be held on Saturday at noon at the Douglass Memorial Community Church, located at Madison and Lafayette Avenues.The family will receive friends and guests at 11:30.There will be a family hour during which a special tribute featuring songstress Ruby Glover along with several musicians and directed by Andy Ennis will be made.

Henry Frazier, Jr. was born in South Carolina in 1911 to Susan and Henry Frazier, Sr.

Henry was retired from the transportation field. He transported students from public and private schools. At one time Henry owned and operated two record shops.

He loved music and promoted many area groups and attended the performances of many nascent area groups. He also collected records and worked closely with the Left Bank Society of Baltimore and the Lettum Play Society of Washington, D.C.

He is survived by his wife Heloise, sons Henry, Jr., Preston Michael and daughters Cheryl-Lynn and Susan-Maria; two grandchildren Ebony and Monica.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that contributions be made to Camp Farthest Out, Douglass Memorial Community Church, Madison and Lafayette Aves, Baltimore, Md, 21217.

IF YOU ASK ME

By Bettye Moss

Smile-of-the-week orchids to M. Keith Rawlings, M.D. He is the 32-year-old physician-internal medicine specialist-who is AIDS coordinator for the Baltimore City Health Department.

Young Dr. Rawlings was among visitors who toured the soon-to-open $44 million Shock Trauma Unit at the University of Maryland Hospital in downtown Baltimore on Wednesday.

He caught our eye because he is tall and handsome and possesses an engaging smile. We're glad he stopped to greet us. It gave us an opportunity to remind him we remember when he was a kid in knee pants.

Today, he is a 1983 U. of Md. Medical School grad and has opened a private practice office in the 2200 block Madison Ave., where the late Dr. I. Bradshaw Higgins practiced for half a century. Remember?.

Cuff note: Dr. Rawlings is son of the Marsden Rawlingses (Annabelle), whom many know as good neighbors.

He and his lawyer-wife. Ilona Sheffey Rawlings have two youngsters Afi, 6; and Jamal, 5 months. Mom is special assistant in the Attorney General's office.

Shock Trauma, mentioned above, bears the name of its founder-director, Dr. H. Adams Cowley. The spanking new facility is to receive its first patients at the end of the month.

More smiling faces in the Shock Trauma crowd: — Ideal Bank's Yvonne Lansey, Dr. and Mrs. Joel Carrington, Dr. Pearl C. Brackett, Mrs. Lydia Mussenden, John Evans, Miss Patricia Drummond.

More smiles

More smile orchids to these neighbors whom we watched or heard about their duties in a friendly way: — 22-year-old Valerie Comegys, a waitress at Blue Crest, a Southwestern High grad and member of First Apostolic Church.

And to, Dr. Margaret Ann Reid, Morgan State Associate Professor of English; Mrs. Vivian Salters, U. of Md. home ec. specialist in Howard County; and to Earl N. Graves, personnel specialist with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, all of whom have plenty of sunshine in their voices.

So do Miss Patti Waters, the very pleasant registered nurse who is the senior clinical nurse at Johns Hopkins Hospital Wilmer Operating Room. Miss Barbara Williams, secretary in the city schools' business management office (her "hold on, please, thank you" is refreshing) — and Mrs. Margaret Makel, the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church member.

Oops: — A smile "in the Dec. 3rd edition" incorrectly identified Mrs. Edna Gover of Arunah Ave., who marked her 99th birthday on Nov. 25. Many happy returns.

Hello Yule

Members of Committee X71 did it again on Saturday afternoon. Their 18th annual Christmas party at Blue Crest North was elegant.

Guests arrived to find hosts extending a warm welcome and moved on to greet friends, chat over cocktails and then dined (on prime rib with all the trimmings), and dance to the music of Dennis Fisher, with lilting vocals by Jennifer Jones.

Member, Howard C. Hartsfield and his wife, Millicent (who was a picture in iridescent lutrex) hosted a number of friends from Philly who came by special bus for the afternoon affair.

Most distinguished among them — recently elected Episcopal bishop, the Rt. Rev. Barbara Harris. Impressive: She obliged club members' request, offered the blessings before dinner.

Among guests

Also here from Philly: the city's retired school superintendent, Dr. Charles Highsmith, and his wife. Magnolia; Federal Reserve Board General Counsel Hilary Holloway and wife, Bea.

Also, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Baker, (Gertrude), and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Alston, Marilyn).

Cuff note: Many know Mr. Hartsfield. He's deputy super in charge of city schools' business management. The Mrs. is a senior exec with the Philly schools.

More out-of-town residents there at the table hosted by members, Ernest Murphy and Ada Weaver were: Ray and Annette Hall of Silver Spring and Teddy and Ernestine Hagan of D.C.

Other members of the club noted for gracious hosting are:

In 1962, a seventeen year-old discovered the world.

Back when Patricia Lightfoot got interested in space flight, cars had fins, movies had double features and mathematically gifted Black girls had limited career prospects. But 1962 was the year Patricia Lightfoot won a scholarship to Howard University. And on the way to becoming a math teacher, she discovered a world of opportunities.

In the unique environment that historically Black colleges provide, Patricia Lightfoot learned that her dreams of becoming a mathematician were achievable. "At Howard," she says, "I learned how to learn. A Black college gave me confidence... and a support that was always there when I needed it."

That confidence helped Patricia master higher mathematics, computer science, graduate school and her own destiny. Today, as head of the spacecraft Control Branch of NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center, she directs the design and development of ground support systems for vital satellite projects.

When you're considering colleges, doesn't it make sense to consider the ones that produce distinguished achievers like Patricia Lightfoot and 40% of the nation's Black college graduates? America's Black colleges. If you want to make a world of difference in your future, they can show you how.

This food for thought is brought to you by Maxwell House® Coffee, a supporter of America's historically Black colleges.
