

(i) Making recommendations to the Governor, the General Assembly and the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals of Maryland regarding legislative proposals.

5. The Commission shall complete its work and make its final report by April 15, 1974 to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Delegates and the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, at which time all books, papers, files, records, furniture, fixtures, or funds, owned by or in custody of the Commission, shall be transferred to the Board of Public Works.

---

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF JULY 5, 1972

PORT DEPOSIT

WHEREAS, I, Marvin Mandel, Governor of the State of Maryland, did on June 23, 1972, proclaim that a state of public emergency and crisis existed within the vicinity of the town of Port Deposit, Maryland; and

WHEREAS, Subsequent to the aforesaid proclamation, I issued on June 23, 1972, several executive orders including an order restricting access to the town of Port Deposit, Maryland and an order directing that police and all law enforcement agencies in Port Deposit shall operate under and at the direction of the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police; and

WHEREAS, After consultation with responsible officials in this area, I am advised that the state of public emergency and crisis has abated and domestic tranquility has been restored.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of Maryland, I do hereby proclaim, effective as of 4:30 P.M., July 5, 1972, the rescission of the proclamation of emergency within the vicinity of the town of Port Deposit, Maryland, and do further proclaim the rescission of the order restricting access to the town of Port Deposit, and do further proclaim the rescission of the order directing police and all law enforcement agencies in Port Deposit to operate under and at the direction of the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police, and do further rescind any other executive orders issued as a result of such proclamation of public emergency and crisis.

---

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF JULY 26, 1972

PROCLAMATION

TROPICAL STORM AGNES

WHEREAS, I, Marvin Mandel, Governor of the State of Maryland, have been advised and informed, that unprecedented heavy rainfalls which accompanied tropic storm Agnes on June 21 and 22, 1972, have resulted in severe flood damage over extensive areas of the State of Maryland; and

WHEREAS, Said flood damage was widespread in the State of Maryland, and most severe in certain areas of the State; and