AREA OBITUARIES

Dr. James E. Moore

Final rites for Dr. James Emory Moore were held Saturday, Dec. 9 in Howard Thurman Chapel, East Campus at Howard University School of Divinity, Washington, DC. He was 71.

A native of Baltimore, he was the son of the late Wynona Koger Moore Collins and James E. Moore, Sr. His early years were spent in Baltimore where he attended public schools. He was a member of the Union Baptist Church.

After serving honorably in the Korean Conflict from 1951-53, he returned to Howard University to study dentistry and received the D.D.S. degree in 1957.

Dr. Moore then moved to Seattle, Washington, and began a distinguished career as dentist, community leader and educator. Changing direction but not his focus, he returned to Washington, DC area in 1969 to attend the Johns Hopkins University and received the M.P.H. degree in 1970. He then accepted an appointment as Dental Director of the National Job Corps, U.S. Department of Labor.

Joining the faculty of the Howard University College of Dentistry in 1982, he became an assistant professor in the Department of Community Dentistry where he taught until his failing health caused his retirement in 1989.

Dr. Moore's professional affiliations include membership in numerous organizations - the American Dental Association, National Dental Association, American Public Health Association, National Association of Health Services Executives, Association of Public Health Dentists, and American Association of Dental Schools.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Joyce Craig Moore; daughter, Mrs. Joyce Collyn Moore Nichols and two grandchildren.

Mr. Bobby G. Hinton

Mr. Bobby Gene Hinton, son of the late James O. Hinton and Lucille L. Hinton died Dec. 8. He was born Oct. 22, 1936 in Garner, NC.

Educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools he worked for Social Security Administration; Baltimore Transit Company, City of Baltimore Food Service Division and Cloverdale Dairy.

Services were held for Mr. Hinton, Friday, Dec. 15.

Interment in Garrison Forest Cemetery.

Mrs. Florence L. Bradford

Mrs. Florence Clara Louise Bradford, daughter of the late Moses and Ella Waters was born Sept. 24, 1912 in Hartford County. She died Nov. 30 after a lengthy illness at Harbor Hospital Center.

Mrs. Bradford received her education in the public schools of Harford County. At the age of 18 she married Mr. Herman W. Bradford, Sr. This union four children were born.

She was a faithful member of Gillis Memorial Christian Community Church from 1945, until her illness no longer permitted her to continue.

Services were held Dec. 5 at Gillis Memorial Christian Community Church.

Survivors include three sons, Messrs. Herman W. Bradford, Howard W. Bradford, Sr and Arthur D. Bradford; one daughter, Ms. Silvine L. Bradford; eight grandchildren; five great grandchildren and two sisters, Ms. Martha and Ms. Mary Waters.

Interment in Maryland National Cemetery.

Mrs. Constance J. Houston

Final rites for Mrs. Constance Jackson Houston were held Tuesday, Dec. 12 at St. Edward Catholic Church.

"Connie," as she was known to her friends and family was born May 6, 1943 in Baltimore to Sallie Garland Jackson and the late James Lankford Jackson. She died suddenly Dec. 6 at Francis Scott Key Medical Center.

She received her education in Baltimore public schools and was employed at the Alfred Packaging Company, where she worked for approximately 17 years.

Survivors include husband, Mr. Thelmond Houston; three children, Djuana, John, Jr. and Sharon Tally; five stepchildren, Thelmond, Jr and John of South Carolina; Benita, Anton and Crystal of Baltimore; 11 grandchildren; mother, Mrs. Sallie Jackson; one sister, Mrs. Eunice Thomas and one brother, Mr. James L. Jackson.

Interment in Druid Ridge Cemetery.

Mrs. Gloria M. Haskins

Funeral services for Mrs. Gloria Mae Willis Haskins were held Dec. 13. Mrs. Haskins one of ten children born to the late Edward and Mamie Evans Willis was born Sept. 25, 1931. She died Dec. 9.

During her youth she attended Baltimore City public schools. After completing Douglass High, she worked at Stewart's and Hecht stores for many years. In later years she worked at the Marlborough Apartment Complex.

She was fond of knitting and crocheting. She enjoyed attended mass at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church, but her greatest love was her grandchildren.

Survivors include her husband, Mr. Matthew Samuel Haskins; daughter, Mrs. Renee Haskins Young; two sons, Guy and Kip; three grandchildren; four brothers, Milton, Stanley, Frizzell and Leon Willis.

Interment in Garrison Forest Cemetery.

ATTEND THE CHURCHES OF YOUR CHOICE.

Mrs. Ruth B. Hylton

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth McWayne Barbour Hylton were held Thursday, Nov. 30 at City Temple Baptist Church. Mrs. Hylton, born Jan. 7, 1922 in Lynchburg, VA died Nov. 24 at Liberty Medical Hospital after a brief illness.

She was educated in the public schools of Lynchburg and did practical home care nursing in the Lynchburg area. In 1944, she joined the U.S. Armed Forces and was one of a few Blacks serving as a medical corpsman in the WAC Training Center in Des Moines, Iowa. During her tenure, she received the American Campaign Medal, World War II Victory Medal and the Good Conduct Medal. She was discharged in 1945.

After returning to Lunchburg, she attended and graduated from Stokes Beauty College and operated her own shop in her home while also working at the Lynchburg Hosiery Mill.

Mrs. Hylton later moved to Baltimore and in 1951, she was certified as an apprentice barber. She worked at the Apex Barber College while attending several nursing colleges in the Baltimore area. At the time of her death, she was employed as a nurse at Veterans Administration Hospital.

Survivors include her stepmother, Mrs. Lucille Johnson, Lynchburg, VA; five sisters, Mesdames Ernestine Haskins, Irene Morris, Vester Hicks, Audrey Elliott and Delores Trimiar; two brothers, Mr. Nathaniel Johnson and Rev. James E. Johnson, Jr. and one stepsister, Mrs. Rebecca Coleman.

Interment in Garrison Forest Veterans Memorial Cemetery.
