they are due.

Sec. 7.110 - Other employees.

(a) In addition to the Chief Clerk, there shall be one (1) assistant clerk of the People's Court who shall receive an annual salary of not less than thirty-six hundred dollars ($3,600), one constable who shall receive an annual salary of not less than twelve hundred dollars ($1,200), and such additional employees as the Chief Judge may from time to time deem necessary, who shall receive such salaries as are provided in the annual county budget. The Chief Clerk with approval of the Chief Judge, shall make the appointments to all such positions and shall supervise and direct the work thereof. The County Council shall set the salaries of employees mentioned in this subsection.

(b) The Chief Judge shall appoint a full time bailiff who shall receive an annual salary of not less than twenty-four hundred dollars ($2,400), to be set by the County Council.

Sec. 7.111 - Right of removal to other judge.

Any defendant, or his agent, or his attorney, who shall make suggestion in writing, upon oath, that he does not believe such defendant can have a fair and impartial trial in any case pending for trial before a Judge, shall have the right at any time before trial, upon making said written suggestion and oath to the Judge before whom the case is pending for trial, to have the pending case removed for trial to the other Judge; the said Judge shall forthwith transfer all papers and a record of his proceedings in the case to the other Judge for disposition.

Sec. 7.112 - Prior law continued.

The laws which have been enacted previously concerning the right of appeal from justices of the peace and justices of the peace designated as trial magistrates in Howard County shall continue in all respects to be effective as the People's Court of Howard County herein created.

Sec. 7.113 - Removal and retirement.
