

COUNTY LOCAL LAWS

constitute the Fire Board.

SECTION 11. Section 37-2, title "Fire board," Chapter 37, title "Kensington," of the Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended, is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Sec. 37-1. Fire Board.

(a) There is hereby created a body to be known as the Kensington Fire Board, which shall manage the financial affairs of the Kensington Volunteer Fire Department, Inc., and exercise such other authority as is vested in it by this chapter. The Fire Board shall consist of fifteen members, two of whom shall be members of the Kensington Volunteer Fire Department, Inc., and who shall be designated, elected or appointed from time to time by the fire department in such manner and for such terms as it shall determine; provided, that such members shall be residents of the Kensington Fire Area, outlined on the map following Section 27-3 of this Code. The remaining thirteen members of the Fire Board shall be residents and real estate taxpayers within the Kensington Fire Area and shall be elected by the Kensington Fire Area Committee, created in the manner provided in this chapter; provided, however, that three members of the Fire Board shall reside within that portion of the Kensington Fire Area lying south and southwest of the Metropolitan Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, hereinafter known as Area No. 1; six members of the Fire Board shall reside within that portion of the fire area lying north and northeast of such railroad west of Georgia Avenue, south of Layhill Road and Big Branch Creek, and east of Rock Creek, hereinafter known as Area No. 2; and four members of the Fire Board shall reside within the remaining portion of the fire area, hereinafter known as Area No. 3. No person shall be eligible to serve concurrently as a member of the Kensington Fire Board and the Kensington Fire Area Committee. Any member of the Fire Board elected by the Fire Area Committee who shall cease to be either a resident or real estate taxpayer within the fire area shall thereupon be dropped from the membership of the Fire Board, and the Fire Area Committee shall promptly elect a new member to fill any such vacancy so occurring. No member of the Kensington Volunteer Fire Department, Inc., shall be eligible to serve as the representative on the Fire
