IF YOU ASK ME

Smile Orchids

Smile orchids to these pleasant Baltimore residents we observed this week — Jacques (Jack) Leeds, the attorney, who serves on the state's Workers Compensation Commission.

And his wife, Martha Leeds has sunshine in her voice, too. She's Forest Park High School business teacher.

Also to the Workers' Compensation Commission chair — Charles J. Krysiak. He has a pleasing manner.

• • •

More orchids to William T. Lyles, Jr. He's the personable ticket agent in U.S. Air's Fayette St. office whom we observed carrying out his duties in a professional manner.

Cuff note: He's organist and trustee board chair at New Bethlehem Freewill Baptist Church.

• • •

Lots of sunshine in the voice of Dr. Thelma B. Cox. She's the educator who heads the African American Heritage Society which holds a red, black and green ball Feb. 10 at the Forum. Proceeds will fund workshops and seminars at Coppin State College. For reservations call, 367-6291.

• • •

And joy and love in the lilting soprano voice of Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, when she sang "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" at St. James Episcopal Church on Sunday.

About People

Among the 35,000 plus witnessing the inauguration of Virginia Governor L. Douglas Wilder in Richmond last week were Baltimore City 5th District Councilwomen, Vera Hall and Iris Reaves.

They represented Baltimore's Mayor Kurt Schmoke; were seated on the platform with Atlanta Mayor Maynard Jackson and D.C.'s Marion Barry.

Councilwoman Reaves called the inaugural activities "most exciting to be able to witness the first Black governor of a major state in the U.S. . . . it gave you a feeling of pride. It was truly significant coming on the weekend of the Martin Luther King, Jr. birthday celebration.

• • •

Thinking - of - you hellos, please to the Harlow Fullwoods (Elnora) had their fill of family sadness last week. Mrs. Fullwood's niece, 14 - year - old Tamara Bassett, a Richmond High School student, was killed in an auto accident. Her brother, Thearon, 16, driver, their mother, Mrs. Mary Bassett, and grandmother, Mrs. Mary Alter suffered minor injuries.

The Fullwoods were in Richmond for the funeral services of their niece last week. This week, he was in Lawnside, N.J., for funeral of his cousin, Phurman Fullwood, who killed his wife, then took his own life.

Baltimore's Mr. Fullwood says of these tragedies — "You have to keep moving and keep doing for the living." His annual breakfast where hefty contributions will be made to community groups will be held as scheduled Saturday morning at the Palladium.

With Love

Members of Douglass Memorial Community Church held a day-long celebration on Sunday to mark the 40th anniversary of their pastor - Rev. Dr. Marion Curtis Bascom.

The salute began with 8 a.m. worship service, and continued with 11 a.m. worship and then an afternoon program in which members and community leaders paid tribute in word and song to the preacher, teacher and innovator whom many admire for his astute leadership.

All of the activities were held in the church at Madison and Lafayette Aves., where major renovations have been made, including an elevator.

Merita K. Stokes
"A Joyous Person"

Mayor Kurt Schmoke, who grew up in the church, and Rev. Bascom's longtime friend, Samuel T. Saniels, presided at the afternoon salute program — which was filled with many delightful moments.

Among them, Rev. Bascom looking out over the overflow audience and calling by name persons and remembering which events that impressed him through the years.

Since Dr. Bascom insisted that he did not want a celebration of his anniversary, church members had worked in secret and kept details from him.

Thoughtful gesture: Presentation of his portrait to hang in the church; renaming of the church's Douglas Village, the 49 - apartment complex in the 1300 block Madison Ave., for Marion Bascom.

More moving: The musical tributes, especially renditions of the honoree's favorites, "He's Got The Whole World In His Hands," by Daisy Jackson and Sylvester Graves' "Eternal Life," and the choir leading "Great Is Thy Faithfulness."

Glimpses

Among speakers who attested to Dr. Bascom's love and devotion — his long role as civil rights activist (He marched in Selma with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and poverty marches bound for D.C. were housed and fed at Douglas Church), and gave intimate glimpses of his long service as "an inspired and committed leader" in the Baltimore community.

Cited were his leadership in providing outreach programs for youth, Camp Farthest Out serving 400 deserving youth each summer, the church's Headstart program and Seeker's House, a coffee house on Pennsylvania Ave., and establishment of a church credit union, shining examples of events which illustrate the church's commitment to the community.

Among other speakers, Charles Thomas, retired firefighter and former president of Vulcan Blazers - Dr. Bascom, was first Black Fire Board Commissioner; longtime minister friends and activists, Rev. Frank L. Williams and Rev. Vernon Dobson;

Also Dr. Carl Adair of the church's trustee board; Paul A. Scott, of the steward board, and Dwight Taylor of Associated Black Charities, where Dr. Bascom is vice president.

Mrs. Bascom, (Dorothy), told of a wife's joy and admiration. Their proud children are, Marion Jr., Peter and Singleton Bascom, Vivian Yeadon, and daughter, Bernadette Miller, who sent greetings from Las Vegas where she is a singer.

• • •

More remember

People remembering: — Some 350 relatives and friends gathered at St. James Episcopal Church Thursday morning to say goodbye to Merita Kelson Stokes.

She was the good neighbor whom many admired because of everlasting good humor and concern for others - even during her long illness.

In his eulogy, Father Michael Curry described her as a joyful person. She was indeed that.

Note: Merita willed her body to science. Her ashes were buried in the family plot at Arbutus Memorial Park.

Cuff note: A native Baltimorean, Mrs. Stokes was daughter of well - known mortician, the late George G. Kelson and Mrs. Kelson.

A number of city morticians attended the service and provided comfort.

Mrs. Stokes, 65, was a product of city schools, Hampton Institute; N.Y. University and U. of Md. For 20 years, she was a teacher of physical education in city schools, retiring in 1974.

She also officiated at women's basketball games, and was active in a number of civic and social groups, including the Epicureans where she served as national president at one time.

Survivors: Husband, John Earl Stokes, 3rd; son, Dr. John Earl Stokes, 4th daughter-in-law, Deidre; granddaughter, Camille; godchild, Bethel Henry; stepsister, Phyllis Allen Diggs.

EATING RIGHT CAN HELP REDUCE THE RISK OF CANCER.

And since a 12 year study shows that being 40% or more overweight puts you at high risk — it makes sense to follow these guidelines for healthy living: Eat plenty of fruits and vegetables rich in vitamins A and C — oranges, cantaloupe, strawberries, peaches, apricots, broccoli, cauliflower, brussel sprouts, cabbage. Eat a high-fiber, low-fat diet that includes whole-grain breads and cereals such as oatmeal, bran and wheat. Eat lean meats, fish, skinned poultry and low-fat dairy products. Drink alcoholic beverages only in moderation. For more information call 1-800-ACS-2345.
