Scholarship fundraiser

The A.J. Payne Memorial Fund, Inc luncheon was held recently as a fundraiser to conduct its annual scholarship program.

The James B. Thornton Scholarship Fund has been established because of the continuing concern by Bishop Thornton that students may have a better chance of success to get an education.

The sick and contact committee of the United Church of Jesus Christ Apostolic, Inc gave the fundraising affair to benefit the scholarship fund that will benefit students in the community without regard to race or religious affiliation.

Presently it is the only fund in the area named in honor of a pastor while he lives. The scholarship was presented to Ms. Tammy Streat of the Paul Laurence Dunbar Community High School

Many local dignitaries attended the ceremony including: Mayor Schmoke, Congressman Kweisi Mfume, State Senator Troy Bailey, Delegate Tony Fulton, City Council President Mary Pat Clark, Councilman Carl Stokes and Stuart Simms, Esq., State's Attorney for Baltimore City.

Pastor Thornton, and Mayor Schmoke present recipient Ms. Tammy Streat with her awarded scholarship while Dr. Elzee Gladden and Stuart Simms, Esquire look on.
