AREA OBITUARIES

William Matthew Dorsey

On Tuesday, May 8, funeral services for William M. Dorsey were held at Union Bethel A.M.E. Church, 8502 Liberty Rd.

Mr. Dorsey died in Johns Hopkins Hospital on May 4, after a lengthy illness.

William M. Dorsey was born on January 11, 1930 in Hebbville, Maryland to the late Augustus C. and Ruth Dorsey Crowner.

"Fats" as he was known to those who loved him received his education at Chatter Elementary School and Carver High School in Towson where he graduated.

Fats worked as the Chief Custodian for thirty-three years at Randallstown Elementary School until his retirement in 1981 due to poor health. He also served as a member of the Masonic Number 56 Prince Hall Affiliate.

His first marriage was to Theresa Jones and out of this union was born Mary Lou, Joyce and the late William Charles. Later he met and married Edna Nealy and out of this union was born a son, John William. Edna and Fats were married for thirty-three years.

William M. Dorsey leaves to mourn: his wife, Edna N. Dorsey; daughters, Mary Lou Butler, Joyce Dorsey Washington; a son John William Dorsey; sons-in-law, Louis Butler and Chester Washington;

Donald Roderick Scott, Jr.

Donald Roderick Scott, Jr., 15 years old, died April 24, after a lengthy illness. Funeral services were held Sunday, April 29.

Donald was attending Greenspring Middle School when he became ill. He was looking forward to attending Northwestern High School with a goal of becoming a doctor.

Donald leaves behind: his father, Donald Scott, Sr.; his mother, Louise Elizabeth Scott; his sisters: Krystal, Louise, Evette Catherine Scott; his brother Craig Leonard Scott, grandparents, and a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.

Wanda Gail McNeill

Services for Wanda Gail McNeill were held Saturday, May 5.

Mrs. McNeill was the daughter of the late Joseph and Margaret McNeill. She was born on May 28, 1953 in Winston Salem, N.C. She died suddenly on Friday, April 27.

She attended Cherry Hill Elementary School and Junior high school. She graduated from Edmondson High School in 1972. After graduation she married George Baker and from that union two children were born, Aaron and Charmaine Baker.

She leaves to mourn: sons Aaron and Marcus; daughter, Charmaine; her mother, Margaret E. McNeill; four brothers, John Thomas McNeill, Pernell McNeill, Joseph Christopher McNeil and Kenneth McNeil; sister, Patrice Cherra McNeill, grandmother, Flora Carter of Red Springs, N.C.

Smile Orchids

Plenty of smile orchids to James and Louise Campbell, the Division St. good neighbors admired by many for their caring for others. They celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary recently, renewed vows at Douglas Memorial Community Church.

She's the retired teacher, he's the retired Acme super and former member of Baltimore Singers.

Cuff note: Some 40 relatives and friends saluted them at a reception following the ceremony. Kin include daughters, Lauren Preston and Barbara L. Wright; grandchildren, Artis Quentin and Erika Wright and Brandi and James M. Preston, 3rd.

* * *

Lots of sunshine in the voices of the 50-member Johns Hopkins University Gospel Choir. The group has received rave notices for its performances here in Baltimore and up and down the East Coast.

A Sunday ago, they appeared in concert at St. James Episcopal Church. The rafters really shook - and the audience frequently rose to its feet.

Their "Come By Here," with solos by Paula Kea, Dana Fuqua and John Stanley, and their "Hush" featuring John Stanley and Anissa Payne and Wesley Wood, wowed.

Orchids to director Kevin Rogers and accompanist John Stanley. Their leadership provides listeners with a real treat.

* * *

Smile orchids to Miss Elise Bridges. She's the talented young Baltimorean who received her master's in urban planning at the U. of PA. on May 14. She's employed as vice president of her father's architectural firm - the Leon Bridges Co.

More Orchids

Pleasing is the voice of young Eric Willis, the Aqua Cool service rep. He's a member of Bethel AME Church. His wife, Rosalind is an American Red Cross employee.

* * *

Many smiles in the voice of Mrs. Thelma Millard. She's the director of family support services for the Housing Authority of Baltimore City.

She is wife of Donald Millard, the inmate grievance committee commissioner who is also noted for her pleasing manner. Their daughter, Wanda, is an engineer with the Commerce Department.

* * *

Pleasant smile is the mark of Ralph Jefferson, the Arrow Cab driver and member of Bethel AME Church, where his wife, Sheila, sings on the choir.

Our paths crossed on Mother's Day as we both witnessed a freak collision at Reisterstown Rd. and Patterson Ave., when a jeep operated by Goodyear employee Ronald Jackson, ran head-on into the Volvo which was stopped at the light.

Cuff note: In the Volvo, three of our grands - who fortunately were fastened tight in their seat belts, as were driver Rev. Donald E. Braxton and his wife, Marie.

Cuff note: Have you witnessed an auto accident recently? Have you had to wait for a police officer to arrive - an ambulance - and then a written report by the officer? A real trip!! Enough to wipe away your smiles!!

* * *

Mailbag — Mrs. Helena Collins, Edgewood Ave.: "Thank you for your smiles. With all the problems in this life, we need a lot of smiles. Keep up your smile salute, please, and include in when you have room the name of Mr. Henry R. Williams. He is handicapped, but he never complains, gets about in a wheelchair, always with a smile on his face."

Editor's note: Let this column salute someone you know who deserves a smile salute. Write, Smiles, If You Ask Me, Baltimore Afro-American, 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md., 21201, and smile please.

Papal honors

Three members from Black parishes were among 43 receiving papal honors during a ceremony at the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen on May 6. The awards were announced a month ago by Pope John Paul, II, and conferred by Archbishop William H. Keeler and retired Archbishop William D. Borders. The three who received papal medals for distinguished service were:

Deacon Americus Roy, pastoral director of St. Pius V parish, who was ordained to the permanent diaconate in 1971, is member of the clergy advisory board for the Department of Corrections, heads the Harbor West Regional Council.

Mrs. Sylvia Joseph, St. Edward's parish volunteer who was cited for her work in parish, community and archdiocesan projects, including Ladies of St. Peter Claver and Court of Our Lady of Good Council of which she is Grand Lady.

On the archdiocesan education committee she helped secure bus transportation for schools and served on the Northwest Urban Council. She is former president of the Catholic War Veterans and is currently a member of the national board of St. Peter Claver.

Mrs. Mamie Goines, member of St. Ann's parish where she is noted for long and dedicated service as a worker and choir member. She is former chair of the archdiocesan urban commission and served on the retirement committee for Archbishop Borders. She recently retired after 32 years with the Department of Social Services.

About People

People doing thoughtful things: — when members of the Philomathian Club held their 48th closing luncheon a Saturday ago, they paused to salute young women on the move . . . presented them citations and words of encouragement during the club's luncheon at Martin's West.

Honorees were: Nefertitti Harmon, outstanding honor student at Western High School; Kimberlee Roane - Gause, president of Roane's Rigging, long-distance and local heavy movers; Vinstel Watson, Morgan State University baseball star; and Traci Wolfe Hood, television and movie actress known for her role in Lethal Weapon.

Cuff notes: Miss Wolfe's mom, Mrs. Barbara McDaniels Harris, the Richmond teacher, was in the audience. So were her hubby, Dr. Rodney Hood, the Columbia dentist, and son Von.

* * *

Cuff note: Philomathian speaker was Morgan U. president, Dr. Earl S. Richardson. Luncheon guests sat in rapt attention as he detailed how racism is still very much alive in higher education in Maryland, how Morgan has not received one dime to advance its urban mission. When he finished, he received a standing ovation and promise of support.

Dr. Thelma Bando is club president. Mrs. Marion Patterson chaired the luncheon committee.
